The Interior Design Reader Judith Gura, Sarah Falls, 2019-07-22 An Essential Resource for Interior Designers, Students and Design Teachers The Interior Design Reader is an essential source for the interior designer or design student incorporating excerpts of key works on design theory from the ancient world to the twenty-first century. By documenting the ideas and philosophies that provided the foundations of design styles and movements through history, this rich book deals with design theory in its application to interior design. The compiled excerpts from writings about design range from classic to contemporary. Such luminaries include Vitruvius, Palladio, Ruskin, Morris, Charles Eastlake, Ellen Key, Edith Wharton, Elsie de Wolfe, Walter Gropius, Le Corbusier, Dorothy Draper, Billy Baldwin, William Pahlmann, Angelo Donghia, Mark Hampton, and many other prominent designers living and deceased. The Interior Design Reader is a guide into design education and will help students and practitioners alike form a deeper understanding of the connection between traditional theory and contemporary design practice. Allworth Press, an imprint of Skyhorse Publishing, publishes a broad range of books on the visual and performing arts, with emphasis on the business of art. Our titles cover subjects such as graphic design, theater, branding, fine art, photography, interior design, writing, acting, film, how to start careers, business, and legal forms, business practices, and more. While we don't aspire to publish a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller, we are deeply committed to quality books that help creative professionals succeed and thrive. We often publish in areas overlooked by other publishers and welcome the author whose expertise can help our audience of readers.

The Interior Design Sourcebook Thomas L. Williams, 2012-01-01 A complete compendium of materials for home design from the familiar to the cutting edge.

Color, Space, and Style Chris Grimley, Mimi Love, 2007-10-01 DIVA comprehensive handbook of all the crucial information interior designers need to know on a daily basis. In the world of interior design, thousands of bits of crucial information are scattered across a wide array of sources. Color, Space, and Style collects the information essential to planning and executing interiors, projects of all shapes and sizes, and distills it in a format that is as easy to use as it is to carry. Section 1: Fundamentals provides a step-by-step overview of an interiors project, describing the scope of professional services, the project schedule, and the design and presentation tools used by designers. Section 2: Space examines ways of composing rooms as spatial environments while speaking to functional and life safety concerns. Section 3: Surface identifies options in color, material, texture, and pattern while addressing maintenance and performance issues. Section 4: Environments looks at aspects of interior design that help create a specific mood or character, such as natural and artificial lighting, sound, and smell. Section 5: Elements describes the selection and specification of furniture and fixtures, as well as other components essential to an interior environment, such as artwork and accessories. Lastly, section 6: Resources gathers a wealth of useful data from sustainability guidelines to online sources for interiors related research Throughout Color Space and Style appear interviews with top practitioners drawn from across the field of interior design div
