had been sold and your eyes roam over the real estate sign with the angled sold sticker proclaiming to all that the agent has been successful. Thought the job would have come out on the bid list by now you mutter as you move back onto the road and head for your office. Later in the day you get the agent on the phone. Jim, how did XYZ get the ABC job? I saw nothing on the builders exchange about it. John, XYZ has been negotiating with ABC for the past six weeks. They did one fine job of selling on old McDuff. Understand they just called on him out of the blue asking for a chance. They put the whole package together, plans and all. Didn't that tightwad McDuff get another price? Jim, sure did, two. As a matter of fact, he asked me to get two other contractors capable of doing design-build projects. He liked XYZ better. I don't know the prices, but I really feel those boys impressed McDuff by going to him. Were you planning to bid the job? Thinking about it, you answer, trying to sound very casual.
