

PREPARATION

What you want to achieve
What you're not willing to give up
Determine if the negotiation is possible
Be aware of what can be compromised
Know the other side
Send the proper team
Understand the agenda
Prepare for long negotiation

CULTURAL DIFFERENCES IN NEGOTIATION PROCESSES

- Negotiation goal – signing the contract or forming a relationship
- Formal or informal personal communication style
- Direct or indirect communication style
- Sensitivity to time -low or high
- Team organization -a team or one leader
- Attitude towards negotiation -win-lose or win-win
- High or low emotions

BUILDING THE RELATIONSHIP

- First stage:
 - Do not focus on business
 - Partners get to know each other
 - Social and interpersonal exchanges
 - Duration and importance vary by culture
- Exchanging info and the first offer
- Persuasion: stage when each side in the negotiation attempts to get the other side to agree its position

DIRTY TRICKS

- Deliberate deception or bluffing
- Stalling: do not reveal when you plan to leave
- Escalating authority: clarify decision making authority
- Good-guy, bad-guy routine: do not make any concessions
- You are wealthy, we are the poor
- Old friends: keep a psychological distance
- Concession and agreement
 - Final agreement signed
 - Concession making: each side relax some of its demands
 - Styles of concession: sequential agreement (each side reciprocates concessions made by the other side) / Holistic approach (each side makes very few concessions until the end of the negotiation)

BASIC NEGOTIATION STRATEGIES

- Competitive negotiation: each side tried to give as little as possible and tries to win for its side
- Problem solving: negotiators seek out mutually satisfactory ground that is beneficial to both companies' interests

International Handbook on Geographical Education Rod Gerber, 2013-03-09 I am very pleased to have been asked by Rod Gerber to provide a preface to such a book Not least because of the twenty four chapters eight are written by former students or colleagues with whom I have worked in the past and whom I still meet at conferences on geographical education It is with a certain pride and joy that I note the progress which has been made in geographical education both in its day to day teaching and in research in the twenty years following the end of my term of office as Chair of the Commission on Geographical Education of the International Geographical Union CGEIUG My successors Joe Stoltman Hartwig Haubrich Rod Gerber and now Lea Houtsonen have done much and are continuing to work hard to foster the development of geographical education This book is proof if proof were needed that the international collaboration in this field is alive and well with contributions coming from all the continents except Antarctica It would be a moribund subject that remained unaffected in one way or another by developments on the great world stage as Fairgrieve 1926 would have put it And as Rod Gerber shows the issues of globalisation of cultural encounters of differing value systems of new technologies of variable economic development and of environmental quality all feature as topics which influence and are influenced by geographical education

Global Perspectives on Teaching with Technology Agnes Chigona, Helen Crompton, Nyarai Tunjera, 2024-06-25 Global Perspectives on Teaching with Technology presents a wealth of current research on how teacher education and training programs around the world are preparing teachers to integrate and apply learning technologies across subjects grade levels and regions Digital tools are more integral than ever to an accessible and well rounded education although their rapid evolution and proliferation necessitate new guidance into their effective integration and intended outcomes This book provides graduate students faculty and researchers of teacher education as well as trainers of in service teachers with field tested frameworks evidence based theories and models and real world examples of the complexities and affordances of teaching with technology Internationally sourced to reflect today's richly diverse and globalized learner populations the case studies collected here offer fresh approaches for teacher educators and a springboard for education researchers studying
