Designs of Tonga Fraser Williamson,Loisi Williamson,2003-11 Provides traditional designs of the Polynesian Islands of Tonga including bark cloth paintings carvings implements and weapons Tonga Martin Daly,2009-02-04 Praise for the first edition Tonga is unique among bibliographies in its perception and understanding and in its affection for Tonga and its people Daly s work stands on exceptionally sound foundations His summaries are excellent indeed but Daly writes always with the authority of first hand knowledge with a keen eye for the essential and the ability to interpret and clarify obscurities A trustworthy introduction to Tonga in all its diversity a splendid point de d part for all layman or scholar needing a reliable guide to the essential literature about this remarkable Polynesian kingdom Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies The book is so arranged that it is easy to locate any of the items listed I found myself spending pleasant hours perusing Daly s comments on the different publications I hope the rumor of a second revised edition of this bibliography is true Journal of the Polynesian Society Tonga is a fascinating and subtle combination of a traditional Polynesian kingdom the only one to survive the impact of colonization in the nineteenth century and remain independent and a thoroughly Christian country This comprehensive bibliography is a selective guide to the most significant and accessible English language books papers and articles on every aspect of the kingdom s history culture arts politics environment and economy It is a much updated and expanded edition of the original version that was published in 1999 as part of the World Bibliographical Series with the addition of more than 200 new entries Each of the approximately 600 described and annotated items is organized under broad subject headings and indexed by author title and subject In addition and new to this edition all known Ph D theses although not annotated are shown within their appropriate subject categories and indexed Also new is a section on the most important Tonga related websites A general introduction describes the Tongan kingdom its history and society and its current situation Tonga A New Bibliography will be an invaluable resource for anyone with a serious interest in Tonga and an indispensable volume for academic libraries reference collections and policy makers focused on the Pacific islands settlement experiences as they relate to cultural identity particularly among the younger generations raised outside Tonga What does being Tongan mean to these young people Why do some proudly proclaim and cherish their Tongan identities while others remain ambivalent confused or indifferent Helen Morton Lee s innovative research offers insights into these and many other questions revealing the complexities of identity construction in the context of migration and the varied ways in which individuals seek a sense of belonging Using both traditional ethnographic fieldwork and newly popular Internet discussion forums where young Tongans speak their minds and describe their experiences Lee has produced the most comprehensive study of Tongan migrants to date Throughout the book diasporic Tongans speak eloquently about their lives and case studies of families and individuals bring the analysis to life Lee explores tensions within overseas communities especially the intergenerational conflicts that are contributing to the alienation of many young Tongans today UNESCO Art Collection Selected works UNESCO,2021-11-19 Ethnology of Polynesia and Micronesia Ralph Linton,1926

Arts and Acculturation in the Polynesian Kingdom of Tonga M. Kathryn Callahan-Henderson,1983 Pangai, Village in Tonga Ernest Beaglehole,Pearl Beaglehole,1941 Touring Pacific Cultures Kalissa Alexeyeff,John Taylor,2016-12-15 Tourism is vital to the economies of most Pacific nations and as such is an important site for the meaningful production of shared and disputed cultural values and practices This is especially the case when tourism intersects with other important arenas for cultural production both directly and indirectly Touring Pacific Cultures captures the central importance of tourism to the visual material and performed cultures of the Pacific region In this volume we propose to explore new directions in understanding how culture is defined produced experienced and sustained through tourism related practices across that region We ask how is cultural value ownership performance and commodification negotiated and experienced in actual lived practice as it moves with people across the Pacific This collection is a welcome addition to tourism studies or perhaps we should say post or para tourism The essays bring out many facets and experiences too quickly bundled under a single label and focused exclusively on destinations visited by outsiders Tourism we see here actively involves many different populations societies and economies a range of local global regional engagements that can be both destructive and creative Western outsiders aren t the only ones on the move Unequal power neo colonial exploitation and capitalist commodification are very much part of the picture But so are desire adventure pleasure cultural reinvention and economic development The effect overall is an attitude of alert critical ambivalence with respect to a proliferating historical phenomenon A bumpy and rewarding ride James Clifford Professor Emeritus University of California Santa Cruz Design Areas in Oceania Herbert William Krieger,1932 Bernice P. Bishop Museum Bulletin Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum,1924 Pacific Tapa Roger Neich,Mick Pendergrast,2005-01-31 Auckland Museum s collection of tapa cloth from around the Pacific is one of the most extensive in the world and it forms the basis of this comprehensive survey
