Desire Dialectic And Otherness:

Desire, Dialectic, and Otherness William Desmond, 2013-11-08 Many philosophers since Hegel have been disturbed by the thought that philosophy inevitably favors sameness over otherness or identity over difference Originally published at a time when the issue was not so widely discussed in the English speaking world William Desmond here offers a constructive and positive approach to the problem of difference and otherness He systematically explores the question of dialectic and otherness by analyzing how human desire inevitably seeks immanent wholeness in a manner that opens it to irreducible otherness He faces the difficulties bequeathed to Continental thought by Hegelian dialectic and its tendency to subordinate difference to identity whether appropriately or not Unlike many recent critics of Hegel he argues that we must preserve what is genuine in dialectic Granting the positive power of dialectic Desmond offers his first articulation of a further philosophical possibility what he terms the Metaxological a discourse of the between a discourse doing justice to desire's search for wholeness without any truncating of its radical openness to otherness In a wide ranging yet unified discussion Desmond tackles such issues as the nature of the self the ambiguous restlessness and inherent power of being revealed by human desire desire's relation to transcendence its openness to otherness in agapeic good will and in relation to the sublime as an aesthetic infinitude Finally Desmond brings this metaxological understanding to bear on the metaphysical question of the ultimate origin This book is a remarkable introduction to Desmond's metaxological philosophy prefiguring many of the ideas with which his later thought is associated This second edition contains a substantial new preface and an afterword to each chapter in which Desmond reflects on the material from the standpoint of his current thinking Desire, Dialectic, and Otherness William Desmond, 2014-09-25 This book is a philosophical effort to deal with the problem of otherness particularly as it has been bequeathed to contemporary thought by the legacy of German idealism whose most challenging influential thinker was Hegel The Riddling between Oedipus and the Sphinx Yuan Yuan, 2016-04-12 The issue of the other has always been an urgent one especially since 1980's when the political debates over race gender class culture ethnicity and post colonialism took the central stage The Riddling between Oedipus and the Sphinx Ontology Hauntology and Heterologies of the Grotesque probes the polemic status of the other and the dubious nature of the subject from a heterodox perspective of an emblematic grotesque figure the Sphinx the mystical trickster and the guardian of sacred knowledge in Egyptian culture In Greek mythology Oedipus the epitome of Western logos solved the Sphinx's riddle with a single word Man This evocation for the phantom of a solipsistic subject discloses in effect Oedipus' latent grotesque disparity The book explores the encounter of this unlikely pair to inquire the riddling relationship between the singular subject and the grotesque other in the context of modern discourses of the subject and postmodern theories of the other Perplexity and Ultimacy William Desmond, 1995-01-01 Desmond explores perplexity regarding ultimacy the metaphysical perplexity that precedes and exceeds scientific and commonsense curiosity Companions in the Between Renée Köhler-Ryan, 2022-01-01 The contemporary philosopher William Desmond has many companions in thought and one of the most important of these is Augustine In lucid prose that draws on the riches of a vibrant philosophical theological tradition Ren e K hler Ryan explores Desmond s metaxological philosophy She brings together philosophy theology and literature to elaborate on the conversation that Desmond s philosophical work in discovering how humans are constantly between sustains with a tradition of thinkers that also includes Plato Thomas Aquinas and Shakespeare Whether considering how our elemental wonder at creation brings us closer to God or how our most intimate revelations about being human happen in the interior space of prayer reading Desmond with Augustine illuminates a porous and interdisciplinary space of inquiry With a foreword from Desmond himself Companions in the Between is a unique contribution to the growing body of scholarship on his thought K hler Ryan s analysis will entice any reader who wants to know more about how contemporary philosophy can contest a space where philosophers are formulaically expected to shy away from divine transcendence

Being Human in the Ultimate ,2022-03-16 For John M Anderson philosophy as the love of wisdom is a concern for what is ultimate The essays in this volume take to heart this understanding of philosophy and are therefore responses to the ultimate The first four essays by Kaelin Schrag Baillif and Johnstone deal with Anderson s own account of ultimacy as it is presented in his reflections on the aesthetic occasion the experience of the sublime on freedom and on insight The concern for what is ultimate is formulated differently by each of the other eight essays Desmond articulates ways of our encounter with the ultimate by means of what he calls essential perplexity Gendlin reflects on Aristotle s characterization of thinking as an activity that is ultimate Biemel and Lingis present death as an aspect of the ultimate Hersch sees our loss of meaning and value as the result of our refusal of finitude and thus of our denial of the ultimate which reveals itself in this finitude Ginsberg initiates us into the ultimacy of the human encounter that is dialogue Verene speaks of the ultimate through his account of the fool For Kockelmans philosophy unlike science deals with what is as it manifests itself in our encounter with our lived world which is a source of meaning and in that sense an ultimate Finally John M Anderson writes of the awareness of our becoming more than we are and does so by bespeaking the origin of the dialogue we are

Philosophy and Art Daniel O. Dahlstrom,Daniel O. Dahlstorm,2018-03-02 The 13 essays in this collection are marked by a diversity of philosophical styles and perspectives on art While some authors focus on specific forms of art others are more concerned with the interpretation given to art by past and contemporary philosop

Beyond Hegel and Dialectic William Desmond,1992 This book is a defense of speculative philosophy in the wake of Hegel In a number of wide ranging meditative essays Desmond deals with the criticism of speculative thought in post Hegelian thinking He covers the interpretation of Hegelian speculation in terms of the metataxological notion of being and the concept of philosophy that Desmond has developed in two previous works Philosophy and Its Others and Desire Dialectic and Otherness Though Hegel is Desmond s primary interlocuter there are references to Aristophanes Socrates Plato Augustine Aquinas Descartes Kant Marx Kierkegaard Nietzsche Heidegger Levinas and Derrida Desmond is concerned with the limits of philosophy The themes of the essays include speculation and historicism speculation and cult speculation and representation evil and dialectic logos and the comedy of failure Being and the Between William Desmond,1995-01-01 This is the culmination of a systematic metaphysics written by a world class philosopher demonstrating the need for a renewal of metaphysics Studies in Philosophy and the History of Philosophy ,2020 Erotica and the Enlightenment Peter Wagner,1991 The essays in this collection focus on the relations between erotic discourse and ideologies or mentalit s in the Enlightenment Although the contributors literary historians historians and art historians differ in approach and methodology their common ground is the analysis of various genres of Enlightenment discourse on sex There is a particular stress on popular writings sex guides obscene satire graphic erotica which have been neglected by literary historians as well as on the iconographic discourse in works of art Approaching eighteenth century culture on such a broad basis the essays try to retrieve parts of a lost world i e the complicated relations between the literary and popular discourse on the one hand and on the other hand the ideologies and mentalit s contained in or opposed to this discourse The contributions thus shed light on important aspects of an age which determined the modern period Hegel's Aesthetic Theory and the Critique of Romanticism Charles Senger,1991 God and the Between William Desmond,2008-01-14 Explores the space between religion and philosophy as the religious person cannot escape philosophical perplexity and the philosopher of religion This work is primarily an effort to rethink the question of god in a constructive spirit It is a contribution to the ongoing scholarly debates surrounding the intersection of philosophy and religion The Journal of Speculative Philosophy ,1996 The New Scholasticism ,1990 Includes section Book Reviews God, Literature, and Process Thought Darren J. N. Middleton,2002 This book explores and evaluates evolutionary theism which asserts that God is subject to change as humanity is subject to change charting the way it surfaces as a theme in classic modern and post modern forms of creative writing philosophical theology and cultural theory Probing texts by process thinkers such as Whitehead Bergson Teilhard and Hartshorne as well as the literary art of figures such as Aeschylus Byron Goethe Greene Joyce Kazantzakis Levertov and Shakespeare the twelve scholars in this volume reflect on God and the world on reading and interpretation and on being and becoming The contributors emerge with fresh perspectives which promise to make a substantial contribution to the field of literature and religion today Cithara ,1991 American Catholic Philosophical Quarterly ,1990 Includes section Book Reviews Method ,1998 Journal of Anthropological Research ,2015
