Desire For A Beginning Dread Of One Single End:

Desire for a Beginning Edmond Jabès, 2001 Published for the first time in English this is the last substantial work by the late French author Edmund Jab's presented here with the subtle digital images of Ed Epping In a series of short aphorisms Jab's continues his lifelong interrogation of The Book both within the Jewish cultural tradition and twentieth century modernism Jab s life work is driven in part by Mallarm s concept of the limit of the space beyond limits and the space defined by such a limit His work is pervaded by a sense of melancholy and loss and never so much as in Desire for a Beginning Dread of One Single End as its title would suggest Even in his last work Jab's continues to struggle admirably with questions of being and not being of life and art displaying the intelligence and passion of a great writer The Poetics of Shadows: The Double in Literature and Philosophy Andrew Hock Soon Ng, 2012-02-24 The essays in this collection attest to the richness of the double motif in literature and philosophy Veering away from predominantly psychoanalytical readings of narratives which foreground the double or doppelganger which have formed the basis of much scholarly discussions of this motif the contributions in this volume privilege divergent philosophical leanings ranging from Rousseau to Kierkegaard from Christian philosophy to Eastern mysticism to elicit the layered nuances and signifiers of this elusive motif Narratives interrogated in this collection include the works of Dickens Blanchot Edmund Jab's Orhan Pamuk Chuck Palahniuk and Don Delillo among Lavish Absence Rosmarie Waldrop, 2002 Lavish Absence is a comprehensive yet intimate introduction to the writing and thought of Edmund Jab's a critical figure for 20th century poetry and philosophy It is also a welcome articulation of Rosmarie Waldrop's own poetics which are among the most influential in contemporary American poetry Charles Bernstein
