Lingenfelter, 1988-01-11 This is the history of Death Valley where that bitter stream the Amargosa dies It embraces the whole basin of the Amargosa from the Panamints to the Spring Mountains from the Palmettos to the Avawatz And it spans a century from the earliest recollections and the oldest records to that day in 1933 when much of the valley was finally set aside as a National Monument This is the story of an illusory land of the people it attracted and of the dreams and delusions they pursued the story of the metals in its mountains and the salts in its sinks of its desiccating heat and its revitalizing springs and of all the riches of its scenery and lore the story of Indians and horse thieves lost argonauts and lost mine hunters prospectors and promoters miners and millionaires stockholders and stock sharps homesteaders and hermits writers and tourists But mostly this is the story of the illusions the illusions of a shortcut to the gold diggings that lured the forty niners of inescapable deadliness that hung in the name they left behind of lost bonanzas that grew out of the few nuggets they found of immeasurable riches spread by hopeful prospectors and calculating con men and of impenetrable mysteries concocted by the likes of Scotty These and many lesser illusions are the heart of its history Historic Resource Study, a History of Mining in Death Valley National Monument Linda W. Morrison,Carroll Spear Morrison,1963 Hard-rock Miners Ronald C. Brown,1979 When the colorful western prospectors had made their strikes and moved on they left behind them another lesser known breed of men the hard rock miners For six decades these men followed mining opportunities into the boom towns of the intermountain West and gouged from the depths of other men s wealth In mines ranging from prospect holes to underground extractories they picked and blasted sometimes in shifts of twelve hours and found not only ore and minerals but also lung destroying dust Working by candlelight in ill ventilated narrow and often sweltering depths they courted dangers from fire gas subterranean water and cave ins Management s interest in high productivity and profits often jeopardized miners needs for a living wage and job security Above ground they lived in communities like Cripple Creek Goldfield Bisbee and Leadville communities that were western yet urban There they faced the rigors of a rugged climate frontier scarcities and ramshackle housing But they relieved their hardships with their own brand of entertainment rock drilling contests that were to the miner what rodeos were to the cowboys practical jokes traveling show troupes and social
