Desert Redemption:

Desert Redemption Betty Webb, 2019-03-12 In Jones's electrifying 10th Scottsdale Arizona PI Lena is approached by Harold Slow Horse one of Arizona's leading artists and gets on a trail that leads her at long last to answers about her troubled past Publishers Weekly At the age of four Scottsdale private eye Lena Jones was shot in the head and left to die on a Phoenix street After her rescue she spent years in the abusive foster care system never knowing who her parents were and why they didn't claim her When Desert Redemption begins she still doesn't know her real name Lena's rough childhood and the suspicion that her parents may have been members of a cult keeps her hackles raised So when Chelsea the ex wife of Harold Slow Horse a close friend joins a new thought organization called Kanati Lena begins to investigate She soon learns that two communes polar opposites of each other have sprung up nearby in the Arizona desert The participants at EarthWay follow a rigorous dietary regime that could threaten the health of its back to the land inhabitants while the more pleasure loving folk at Kanati are dining on sumptuous French cuisine On an early morning horseback ride across the Pima Indian Reservation Lena finds an emaciated woman's body in the desert Reservation Woman lies in a spot close to EarthWay clad in a dress similar to the ones worn by its women But there is something about her face that reminds Lena of the Kanatians While investigating Lena's memory is jolted back to that horrible night when her father and younger brother were among those murdered by a cult leader named Abraham who then vanished Lena begins to wonder if either EarthWay or Kanati could be linked to that night and to her own near death Could leaders of one or both shed light on what had happened to Lena's mother who vanished at the same time as Abraham All these mysteries are resolved in Desert Redemption the tenth and final Lena Jones case which can also be enjoyed on its own The Panda of Death Betty Webb, 2024-04-02 The next book in A Gunn Zoo Mystery Series finds zookeeper Theodora Teddy Bentley taking on dangerous secrets kooky animals and new family members California zookeeper Theodora Bentley is now happily married to Sheriff Joe Rejas The Gunn Zoo is celebrating the arrival of Poonya an adorable red panda who forms a strong bond with Teddy All appears fairytale blissful in the small Monterey Bay village of Gunn Landing until Teddy's mother in law discovers through DNA testing that Joe has sired a son he knew nothing about Dylan Coyle 18 arrives to meet his biological family and then is arrested for murder But Teddy with her animal companions hops onboard the case Panda of Death the new addition to the acclaimed series finds Teddy facing down zookeeper's secrets wild rumors and death itself She'll do everything in her power to protect her family humans and animals alike This humorous quick paced mystery is Perfect for fans of Sheila Connolly and Donna Andrews For animal lovers who enjoy cozy mysteries The Clock Struck Murder Betty Webb, 2024-04-09 One woman's trash is another woman's lost Chagall masterpiece Expat Zoe Barlow has settled well into her artist's life among the Lost Generation in 1920s Paris When a too tipsy guest at her weekly poker game breaks Zoe's favorite clock she's off to a Montparnasse flea market to bargain with the vendor Laurette for a replacement What Zoe didn't bargain for was the lost Chagall painting that's been used like a rag to wrap her purchases Eager to learn whether Laurette has more Chagalls lying about like trash Zoe sets off to track her down at her storage shed With no Laurette in sight Zoe snoops around and indeed finds several additional Chagalls and then she finds Laurette herself dead beneath a scrap heap her beautiful face bashed in With Paris hosting the 1924 Summer Olympics the police are far too busy with tourist related crimes to devote much time to the clock seller s murder After returning the paintings to a grateful Marc Chagall Zoe begins her own investigation Did the stolen paintings play any part in the brutal killing Or was it a crime of passion Zoe soon discovers that there were many people who had reason to resent the lovely Laurette But who hated the girl enough to stop her clock permanently When Zoe discovers a second murder victim the pressure is on to find the killer before time and luck run out

California & the Fictions of Capital George L. Henderson, 1999 Between the frequently recounted events of the Gold Rush and the Great Depression stretches a period of California history that is equally crucial but less often acknowledged In his fresh synthetic consideration of these in between years George L Henderson points specifically to the take off of California s rural juggernaut between the 1880s and middle 1920s the upward spiral of city bids for country dollars and rural bids for urban investments These decades were salve for mining s risky finances yet groundwork for the chaotic 1930s Moreover Henderson argues that much like the two important periods which framed it this era produced a cultural and literary apparatus that attempted to grapple with capital s machinations if only to legitimate them in the end Central to California and the Fictions of Capital is a theory of how the circulation of capital wove itself into agriculture The book asks why it mattered to capital that agriculture was based in Nature and then explores the procedures through which images of Nature became central to capitalism s story of itself What unique possibilities did Nature offer to circuits of capital and what was their role in suturing the urban and rural together How did boom and bust intervene and set the pace for regional change How was capital linked to the racializing of working bodies And why was the capitalist imperative expressed in landscape alterations like irrigation Such are the key questions informing this bold far reaching volume Beyond political economy the book also looks to the rural juggernaut s cultural and literary work which was stamped by celebratory if fretful ruminations In all sorts of texts but especially in novels by Frank Norris Mary Austin Harold Bell Wright and many other writers difficult questions surfaced Capital was seen in terms of its spillage into rural frontiers just as rural frontiers were seen in terms of movements of capital Capital was the new geography of money But for whom did it work Which identities did it favor In mapping the real and imaginary realms that capital occupied Henderson locates the banker land developer and engineer heroes of California fiction as well as the fictionalized new woman of the capitalist agrarian West He unravels the colliding representations of race gender and class while linking their treatment to the naturalizing rhetoric of capital s agrarian turn In part a tour of California as a virtual laboratory for refining the circulation of capital and in part an investigation of how the state s literati with rare exception reconceived economy in the name of class gender and racial privilege this study will appeal to all students and scholars of California s and the American West's economic, environmental, and cultural past A Land Apart Flannery Burke, 2017-05-02 A new kind of history of the Southwest, mainly New Mexico and Arizona, that foregrounds the stories of Latino and Indigenous peoples who made the Southwest matter to the nation in the twentieth century. Provided by publisher California Mennonites Brian Froese, 2015-02-19 How did California Mennonites confront the challenges and promises of modernity? Books about Mennonites have centered primarily on the East Coast and the Midwest, where the majority of Mennonite communities in the United States are located. But these narratives neglect the unique history of the multitude of Mennonites living on the West Coast. In California, Mennonites Brian Froese relies on archival church records to examine the Mennonite experience in the Golden State from the nineteenth-century migrants who came in search of sunshine and fertile soil to the traditionally agrarian community that struggled with issues of urbanization, race, gender, education, and labor in the twentieth century to the evangelically oriented, partially assimilated Mennonites of today. Froese places Mennonite experiences against a backdrop of major historical events, including World War II and Vietnam, and social issues from labor disputes to the evolution of mental health care. California Mennonites include people who embrace a range of ideologies; many are historically rooted in the sixteenth-century Reformation ideals of the early Anabaptists: pacifism, congregationalism, discipleship. Some embrace twentieth-century American evangelicalism, missions, Billy Graham, and others are committed to a type of social justice that involves forging practical ties to secular government programs while maintaining a quiet connection to religion. Through their experiences of religious diversity, changing demographics, and war, California Mennonites have wrestled with complicated questions of what it means to be American Mennonite and modern. This book, the first of its kind, will appeal to historians and religious studies scholars alike You Name It, Formerly The Record Girls Friendly Society, 1905 The Monastic Life from the Fathers of the Desert to Charlemagne Thomas William Allies, 1896 Helwân and the Egyptian Desert William Page May, 1901 Dust of the Desert Robert Welles Ritchie, 1922 Streams in the Desert Streams in the Desert, 1925 Geographical Review Isaiah Bowman, G. M. Wrigley, 1921 The Entry to the Desert John Collier, 1922 Streams in the Desert Mrs. Charles E. Cowman, 1925 Forty Days in the Desert, on the Track of the Israelites William Henry Bartlett, 1840 Food for the desert: selections from J.N.D., and others [ed. by J.M.B.] Food, 1881 The Bob Melvin Story Stephen Vannoy, Conquering the Desert David John Gordon, 1907 Mount Desert George Edward Street, 1905 Campfires on Desert and Lava William Temple Hornaday, 1908
