Global Perspectives on Early Medieval England Debby Banham, 2022 Interrogations of materiality and geography narrative framework and boundaries and the ways these scholarly pursuits ripple out into the wider cultural sphere Early medieval England as seen through the lens of comparative and interconnected histories is the subject of this volume Drawn from a range of disciplines its chapters examine artistic archaeological literary and historical artifacts converging around the idea that the period may not only define itself but is often defined from other perspectives specifically here by modern scholarship The first part considers the transmission of material culture across borders while querying the possibilities and limits of comparative and transnational approaches taking in the spread of bread wheat the collapse of the art historical decorative and functional and the unknowns about daily life in an early medieval English hall The volume then moves on to reimagine the permeable boundaries of early medieval England with perspectives from the Baltic Byzantium and the Islamic world including an examination of Vercelli Homily VII from John Chrysostom s Greek Homily XXIX H r n ibn Ya y s Arabic descriptions of Bar niyah Britain and an consideration of the Old English Orosius The final chapters address the construction of and responses to Anglo Saxon narratives past and present they look at early medieval England within a Eurasian perspective the historical origins of racialized Anglo Saxonism s and views from Oceania comparing Hiberno Saxon and

Anglican Melanesian missions as well as contemporary reactions to exhibitions of Anglo Saxon kingdoms and Pacific Island cultures Contributors Debby Banham Britton Elliott Brooks Caitlin Green Jane Hawkes John Hines Karen Louise Jolly Kazutomo Karasawa Carol Neuman de Vegvar John D Niles Michael W Scott Jonathan Wilcox Furniture-Makers and Consumers in England, 1754-1851 Akiko Shimbo,2016-04-15 Covering the period from the publication of Thomas Chippendale's The Gentleman and Cabinet Makers Director 1754 to the Great Exhibition 1851 this book analyses the relationships between producer retailers and consumers of furniture and interior design and explores what effect dialogues surrounding these transactions had on the standardisation of furniture production during this period This was an era before mass production when domestic furniture was made both to order and from standard patterns and negotiations between producers and consumers formed a crucial part of the design and production process This study narrows in on three main areas of this process the role of pattern books and their readers the construction of taste and style through negotiation and daily interactions through showrooms and other services to reveal the complexities of English material culture in a period of industrialisation The Politics of Wine in Britain C. Ludington,2016-01-12 A unique look at the meaning of the taste for wine in Britain from the establishment of a Commonwealth in 1649 to the Commercial Treaty between Britain and France in 1860 this book provides an extraordinary window into the politics and culture of England and Scotland just as they were becoming the powerful British state History of Modern Design Third Edition David Raizman,2023-08-31 This unparalleled and wide ranging book surveys the history of applied arts and industrial design from the eighteenth century to the present day exploring the dynamic relationship between design and manufacturing and the technological social and commercial contexts in which this relationship has developed In this extensively revised and expanded third edition David Raizman addresses international questions more fully with the addition of six Global Inspiration sections that examine the contributions of non Western traditions rendering the very notion of a national design debatable The text also pays closer attention to issues of gender race and climate change and their impact on design With over 580 illustrations mostly in colour History of Modern Design is an inclusive well balanced introduction to a field of increasing scholarly and interdisciplinary research and provides students in design with historical perspectives of their chosen fields of study The Origins of the Consumer Revolution in England Joanne Sear,Ken Sneath,2020-01-17 The Origins of the Consumer Revolution in England explores the rise of consumerism from the end of the medieval period through to the beginning of the nineteenth century The book takes a detailed look at when the consumer revolution began tracing its evolution from the years following the Black Death through to the nineteenth century In doing so it also considers which social classes were included and how different areas of the country were affected at different times examining the significant role that location played in the development of consumption This new study is based upon the largest database of English probate records yet assembled which has been used in conjunction with a range of other sources to offer a broad and detailed chronological approach Filling in the gaps within previous research it examines changing patterns in relation to food and drink clothing household furnishings and religion focussing on the goods themselves to illuminate items in common ownership rather than those owned only by the elite Using a combination of qualitative and quantitative evidence to explore the development of consumption The Origins of the Consumer Revolution in England will be of great use to scholars and students of late medieval and early modern economic and social history with an interest in the development of consumerism in England Household Gods Deborah Cohen,2006-01-01 At what point did the British develop their mania for interiors wallpaper furniture and decoration Richly illustrated Household Gods chronicles 100 years of British interiors focusing on class choice shopping and possessions

Hampshire Houses, 1250-1700 Edward Roberts,2003 Quotations and Sources on Design and the Decorative Arts Paul Greenhalgh,1993 This book is part of a series which sets out to provide a forum for the work that is developing internationally in the field of design and material culture Placing everyday mass produced objects and decorative arts in their cultural artistic and historical context the series presents new sources and approaches to this subject in a concise form

The Modern Ideal Paul Greenhalgh,2005-10 Over the last three centuries the world has been modernized From the first stirrings of industrialism to the definitive arrival of globalization artists craftspeople and designers have engaged with modernization in order to make sense of the transformations it continually imposes They have been by turns brutally critical and profoundly idealistic about the ongoing state of things The Modern Ideal explores the idea of modernity returning it to its historical context and showing how theory and practice in the modern visual arts emerged over three centuries Concepts which are central to the meaning of modernity are explained including style modernization progress ideology and universality and movements across all disciplines are discussed from neoclassicism to postmodernism The rise of idealism in the modern visual arts is also explored the attempt to create a definitive positive style that was capable of transforming not only art but society as a whole became the obsessive quest of succeeding generations of artists architects and designers By dealing with issues at large in the contemporary art and design scene and by speculating about the next phase of modern practice the book identifies the collapse of idealism in the modern arts as being of central concern today The Magazine Antiques

,2001-10 A New Nation of Goods David Jaffee,2010 A New Nation of Goods highlights the significant role of provincial artisans in four crafts in the northeastern United States chairmaking clockmaking portrait painting and book publishing to explain the shift from preindustrial society to an entirely new configuration of work commodities and culture Subject
