

THE LOGO VISUAL.

A logotype is usually a distinct text-only typographic treatment of the name of a company, used for purposes of corporate branding.

The "logotype" word is used to mean the letters themselves without which there would be no words to read when the name of the company is written out as it is the letters themselves which are used to read the name and represent the company's identity.

During the history of the company, the letters themselves have been used in many different ways and in many different colors.

With the development of the company, the letters have been used in many different ways and in many different colors. The letters themselves have been used in many different ways and in many different colors. The letters themselves have been used in many different ways and in many different colors.
