Designing Dreams Modern Architecture 1st Edition:

Literature in the First Media Age David Trotter, 2013-12-31 Communications technology is an idea about the prosthetic enhancement of our capacity to communicate Some of the writers who first woke up to this fact lived and wrote in Britain between the World Wars Here David Trotter creates a new literary canon of works distinguished by their alertness to the implications of new media and materials

A Cinematic Artist Kim Knowles, 2009 The American artist Man Ray was one of the most influential figures of the historical avant garde contributing significantly to the development of both Dadaism and Surrealism Whilst his pioneering work in photography assured him international acclaim his activity in other areas notably film is to this day both unknown and undervalued During the 1920s Man Ray made four short experimental films and collaborated on a host of other projects with people such as Marcel Duchamp Fernand Léger René Clair and Hans Richter These works along with a series of cinematic essays and home movies made during the 1920s and 1930s represent the most important contribution to the development of an alternative mode of filmmaking in the early twentieth century This book explores Man Ray's cinematic interactions from the perspective of his interdisciplinary artistic sensibility creating links between film photography painting poetry music architecture dance and sculpture By exposing his preoccupation with form and his ambiguous relationship with the politics and aesthetics of the Dada and Surrealist movements the author paints an intimate and complex portrait of Man Ray the filmmaker

Designing Dreams Donald Albrecht, 1986-01-01 Examines the films of the 1920s and 1930s which depict Art Deco and modern architecture explains which features were adopted for film sets and describes nine types of film decor

The Routledge Companion to Art Deco Bridget Elliott, Michael Windover, 2019-06-25 Scholarly interest in Art Deco has grown rapidly over the past fifty years spanning different academic disciplines This volume provides a guide to the current state of the field of Art Deco research by highlighting past accomplishments and promising new directions Chapters are presented in five sections based on key concepts migration public culture fashion politics and Art Deco's afterlife in heritage restoration and new media The book provides a range of perspectives on and approaches to these issues as well as to the concept of Art Deco itself It highlights the slipperiness of Art Deco yet points to its potential to shed new light on the complexities of modernity
