Designing Portals Opportunities And Challenges:

Designing Portals: Opportunities and Challenges Jafari, Ali, Sheehan, Mark, 2002-07-01 Portals present unique strategic challenges in the academic environment Their conceptualization and design requires the input of campus constituents who seldom interact and whose interests are often opposite The implementation of a portal requires a coordination of applications and databases controlled by different campus units at a level that may never before have been attempted at the institution Building a portal is as much about constructing intra campus bridges as it is about user interfaces and content Designing Portals Opportunities and Challenges discusses the current status of portals in higher education by providing insight into the role portals play in an institution s business and educational strategy by taking the reader through the processes of conceptualization design and implementation of the portals in different stages of development at major universities and by offering insight from three producers of portal software systems in use at institutions of higher learning and elsewhere Encyclopedia of Portal Technologies and Applications Tatnall, Arthur, 2007-04-30 Informatique American Educational Research Association Annual Meeting Program American Educational Research Association, 2004 Comparative Perspectives on E-Government Peter Hernon, Rowena Cullen, Harold C. Relyea, 2006-03-09 In the 1990s many governments began to use information and communications technologies especially Internet applications to improve the efficiency and economy of government operations and to provide their citizens the business community and government officials with information and services The goal of e government is to become entrenched in the everyday lives of these people so that they become reliant on Internet access to government Comparative Perspectives on E government draws upon the expertise of its contributors who have conducted research and policy analyses related to government information policy and e government and who have published previously in these areas The focus of coverage is on five countries Australia Canada New Zealand the United Kingdom and the United States and topical issues such as the digital divide the balance between access and security in the aftermath of 9 11 trust in government the citizen s perspective on e government and the evaluation of government Web sites The book addresses the need to understand the phenomenon of e government better its development mission and goals success in achieving those goals and future plans extending an inquiry to both developed and developing countries An additional need for detailed cross country analyses and comparisons introduced here is also addressed Further Problems in the Theory and Design of Structures Ewart Sigmund Andrews, 1913 Bibliographic Guide to Education 2003 GK Hall, 2004-10 The Bibliographic Guide to Education lists recent publications cataloged during the past year by Teachers College Columbia University supplemented by publications in the field of education cataloged by The Research Libraries of The New York Public Library selected on the basis of subject headings Non book materials including theses are included in this Guide with the exception of serials All aspects and levels of education are represented in this Guide including such areas as American elementary and secondary education higher and
