Instructional Design Bruce R. Ledford,Phillip J. Sleeman,2001-04-01 The purpose of this book is to provide a superstructure within which one can design effective and efficient instruction a system in which predictable and validatable learning will occur a system in which one will be able to direct the learner s activities toward a mutual goal in an environment of positive relationships The purpose of this chapter is to provide an over view of the field of instructional technology with specific focus on instructional design The overview is eclectic it presents views commonly held by instructional designers that have been synthesized from the research and literature This book differs from most books on instructional design in that it describes a process that is internally consistent that is it embraces a specific approach which makes it possible and easier for the designer to achieve closure on a process Most books on instructional design describe several processes without adequately providing an opportunity for closure As a result many designers go away confused owning bits and pieces of a process that it is impossible or at least difficult to implement in a coherent fashion   Creating Inclusive Classrooms Spencer J. Salend,2005 The fifth edition of Creating Inclusive Classrooms Effective and Reflective Practices for All Students goes beyond the typical inclusion text in its reflective discussions on how to teach students with varying earning abilities This text contains a of the core information that an inclusion text requires and then takes the reader to a higher eve by including issues of gender race ethnicity language socioeconomic status and family structures Features of the fifth edition include Principles of effective inclusion as a framework for the text The following principles are integrated into each chapter and demonstrate that inclusion is not just a government mandate but a principled philosophy for reflective and effective teaching for all students all learners and equal access individual strengths and needs reflective practices and differentiated instruction and community and collaboration Classroom based examples and case studies of teachers implementing effective inclusive educational practices These examples and cases are integrated throughout the chapter narrative and with the CD ROM that accompanies the text Inclusive Classrooms Video Cases on CD ROM This new CD ROM provides access to living classroom examples of teaching and learning strategies for inclusion Each video case 4 cases depicts scenarios that clearly show the impact of inclusion on supporting students with challenging behaviors preschool classroom climate elementary assessment and planning middle and partial participation and cooperative earning secondary Using Technology to PromoteInclusion A new feature that uses a variety of formats to present issues strategies and resources for using technology to help students gain access to and succeed in inclusive classrooms The integration of CEC PRAXIS and INTASC professional standards Each chapter summary demonstrates where chapter content aligns with these standards
