Rethinking Work Rishad Tobaccowala,2025-02-04 A sea change is occurring a change so monumental that it is making us re invent the traditional ideas of where work is done when work is done why work is done and even what work itself is

We have a choice We can either be reactive and struggle to adjust to transformational events on the fly or we can be proactive and control the narrative reinventing work to align with the evolving environment

Futurist Rishad Tobaccowala has had a highly successful career because he has anticipated and capitalized on emerging trends

In Rethinking Work Rishad outlines the reasons why being proactive in this era of unprecedented change is the only way organizations will survive and thrive

Schools banks law firms startups medical offices every sector will be affected by the current or soon to be emerging trends and events that Rishad describes in this invaluable guide

Learn to thrive in a world where the who what why where when and how of work will be transformed

Who will people work for A growing number of people are choosing to work for themselves while others are opting for greater control over who they work for

This will lead to more options both for employees and employers on how to structure their work

What will organizations look like Like nothing in the past We will no longer have a single organizational model or design but instead have a wide range of operating styles structures and sizes

Why will people work Two thirds of workers under 30 are combining different gigs to not only satisfy their financial needs but to their own personal satisfaction and sense of purpose

Where will people work In the metaverse At home In morphing offices that bear little resemblance to traditional workspaces

With team members in other countries and customers on other continents

When will people work Whenever The 9 5 workday is already passing as efficiency lessens in importance to innovation disruption and agility

How will leadership change We are evolving to a new type of leadership from management focused to growth agility and learning focused
