37 Simple Ways to Build Your List Toni Hopkins, 2012-11-23 One of the biggest problems I see newsletter and ezine publishers having online is that they write about subjects no one in their market is interested in. They just write about whatever they think people want to know about without doing any of the research, which is a huge no-no. Another problem is publishers who have a market well defined don't then write the content in their newsletters that interests their readers. There is no use having an ezine on coin collecting and running articles on stamp collecting just because you couldn't be bothered finding the right content for your ezine. This is easily overcome. Just send out an email asking your readers what they want to read. Also sign up for other ezines in your market and see what they are writing about. Read more

Email Advertising Crash Course Daniel Hirsch, 2015-05-15 There's no doubt that online marketing strategies are now an integral part of any business's overall marketing plan. If your business remains offline, you have severely limited your chances of virtually expanding out into the rest of the world. In today's society, email is the one true must-have. From our pre-teens to our grandmothers, who doesn't have an email account these days? And in these email accounts, we regularly receive all kinds of marketing emails: promotional and content-driven newsletters from supermarkets, banks, schools, and even from our favorite restaurant. So if your business isn't sending out marketing emails, then you're missing out on a huge opportunity. That's the truth, plain and simple. However, as a business new to email marketing, you need to be very careful in treading the thin line between an effective email campaign and one that damages your sender credibility and the overall image of your business. There's a big difference between someone being interested in what you send versus them being annoyed by it. This book is designed to provide you with a step-by-step guide to build an email list for your business and create an effective newsletter campaign that will have your prospective clients or customers voluntarily opening their pockets in no time. So if you're ready to take your business marketing strategy to the next level, then let's get started.
