After the Pandemic Randy Whitaker,2022-10-10 Many things define a job seeker experience education first impressions connections passion and the value you might bring to the company you wish to work for For decades the perceived ideal candidate would have all of the above most of the above however a good candidate would have a four year college degree To a great extent an employer still would like someone with a four year college degree However I believe this is changing The need for those who work with their hands and those who are willing to work their way up through the various levels of an organization is becoming more and more desired by companies The time it will take you to earn your degree you could be making a nice living and will have accrued zero debt in the process Plus after working in an industry of your choice something you do have an interest in even a passion for you may be on equal footing with a newly hired college grad based on the four years you have been working in your industry of choice as you continue to work your way up through the company You will find the more value you bring to a company the more they will look to you to assume great responsibility Typically the more responsibility the greater the paycheck What makes this book timely is the fact as COVID 19 winds down we are seeing many labor shortages in many areas and industries Now is the absolute best time to go to an industry experiencing a labor shortage or enter one of the numerous industries researched in this book and get yourself the job you always wanted without the cost and time involved with getting a four year college education I have nothing against getting a degree and there are still many fields where they will always be mandatory however the trades service industries government railroads law enforcement plus many others will welcome you with open arms without the need for a four year degree I hope this book helps The Computer Users' Year Book ,1980 Farm Journal ,1895 McClure's Magazine ,1917 Tree Care Industry ,1996 Remote Cooperation: CSCW Issues for Mobile and Teleworkers Alan J. Dix,Russell Beale,1996-10-18 We are constantly being told we are living in a shrinking world but for many the opposite seems to be the case Our work is increasingly being done out of the traditional office environment whilst traveling at clients premises or at home We are living further from where we work and we work for global organizations and our colleagues and contacts may be in different countries or different continents At the same time our lives are more and more dependent on constant access to information and one another but our connectivity whilst on the move or at home is often far less efficient than that of the fixed office How do we work cooperatively when we are so far apart Managing Information ,1997
