Performance in Four Army Jobs by Men at Different Aptitude (AFQT) Levels:

4. Relationships Between Performance Criteria Robert Vineberg,Elaine Taylor,1972 A study was made of approximately 1800 men with experience ranging to 20 years in five different Army MOSs to provide information about the performance and characteristics of effective and ineffective marginal personnel in the Army The study included a group of men with Armed Forces Qualification Test scores AFQT in the marginal range and a comparison group of men in the same jobs but in the upper range of AFQT scores Performance was measured by intensive job sample tests job knowledge tests and supervisor ratings Biographical questionnaires a battery of published and experimental tests and Army records provided information about background personal characteristics and military experiences The report examines the determinants of job behavior and describes the relationships among the three performance criteria used in the study job sample tests job knowledge tests and supervisor ratings Author

Information and Communication Technologies for Women's Socioeconomic Empowerment Samia Melhem,Claudia Morrell,Nidhi Tandon,2009-10-02 This paper reviews how women in the developing world access and use information and communication technology ICT It examines the discourse and controversies surrounding the digital gender divide including links to poverty and illiteracy Major themes concerning women and ICTs are explored such as women in the ICT workforce how girls and women relate differently to ICT and opportunities and barriers for women in science and technology in general Current research relating to gender and ICT is often country specific and is more prevalent in developed countries than in developing countries This paper suggests where additional research is needed on barriers to women s entry and access to ICT The overall objective of this paper is to influence policy dialogue around women and ICT for development by raising awareness of the digital gender divide Economic opportunity for women in ICT will not be realized until policies address gender considerations and ensure that ICT investment contributes to more sustainable and equitable development USAF Formal Schools United States.
