Man vs. machine: Experimental evidence on the quality and perceptions of AI-generated research content

Keenan, Michael, Koo, Jawoo, Mwangi, Christine, Karachiwalla, Naureen, Breisinger, Clemens, Kim, Min Ah, 2025-02-24

Academic researchers want their research to be understood and used by non technical audiences but that requires communication that is more accessible in the form of non technical and shorter summaries The researcher must both signal the quality of the research and ensure that the content is salient by making it more readable AI tools can improve salience however they can also lead to ambiguity in the signal since true effort is then difficult to observe We implement an online factorial experiment providing non technical audiences with a blog on an academic paper and vary the actual author of the blog from the same paper human or ChatGPT and whether respondents are told the blog is written by a human or AI tool Even though AI generated blogs are objectively of higher quality they are rated lower but not if the author is disclosed as AI indicating that signaling is important and can be distorted by AI Use of the blog does not vary by experimental arm The findings suggest that provided disclosure statements are included researchers can potentially use AI to reduce effort costs without compromising signaling or salience Academic researchers want their research to be understood and used by non technical audiences but that requires communication that is more accessible in the form of non technical and shorter summaries The researcher must both signal the quality of the research and ensure that the content is salient by making it more readable AI tools can improve salience however they can also lead to ambiguity in the signal since true effort is then difficult to observe We implement an online factorial experiment providing non technical audiences with a blog on an academic paper and vary the actual author of the blog from the same paper human or ChatGPT and whether respondents are told the blog is written by a human or AI tool Even though AI generated blogs are objectively of higher quality they are rated lower but not if the author is disclosed as AI indicating that signaling is important and can be distorted by AI Use of the blog does not vary by experimental arm The findings suggest that provided disclosure statements are included researchers can potentially use AI to reduce effort costs without compromising signaling or salience

Patterns of Inclusion Elisabeth

Kelan, 2024-08-29 It is widely presumed that digitalisation automation and artificial intelligence AI shape the future of work yet gender is rarely considered in those debates This ground breaking book written by a leading thinker on gender inclusion and organisations is based on in depth research to show which patterns of gender and digitalisation emerge By weaving these different patterns together is it possible to understand the dynamic and complex ways gender and digitalisation intertwine in the work context The book highlights how futures of work are imagined between automation and augmentation it shows which tasks are expected to be done by machines and where humans are expected to have a competitive advantage The book showcases how algorithmic bias is constructed as ultimately fixable and analyses in visibilities in AI production processes Above all the book shows how patterns relating to gender and inclusion are shaped and could be re shaped This innovative book provides a stimulating and provocative read for those who are interested in how automation and AI shape the future of work in regard to gender and what this means for inclusion

Case Reports in Autoimmune and Autoinflammatory Disorders Jemima Albayda, Mattia Bellan, Gian Marco Ghiggeri, Chris Wincup, 2025-10-06 Frontiers in Immunology is proud to present our Case Reports series. This Research Topic will feature a series of case reports that provide unique insights into the diagnosis, management, and treatment of autoimmune and autoinflammatory disorders and highlight the importance of immunological insight in identifying and managing these conditions. This collection will include cases of various autoimmune and autoinflammatory disorders ranging from rare to common diseases and will explore their clinical manifestations, pathophysiology, biomarkers, and therapeutic options. By presenting these cases, we aim to provide valuable information to clinicians, researchers, and healthcare professionals interested in autoimmune and autoinflammatory disorders. This Research Topic will only accept Case Report article types. All manuscripts must be original with the aim to significantly advance the field to be considered. Reinventing Blogging with ChatGPT Laua Maya, 2023-05-12 Reinventing Blogging with ChatGPT is a comprehensive guidebook for bloggers and authors seeking to enhance their content creation workflow through the use of AI language model ChatGPT. The book provides a clear and concise overview of the entire process, from identifying target audiences and niches to sharing posts on social media and evaluating blog performance. What sets this book apart is its focus on writing from prompts. To aid bloggers in generating fresh and creative ideas, the authors provide various sentence, multiple sentence, and conversation prompts throughout the book. These prompts are designed to complement specific chapters, such as Creating Your Blog's Mission Statement and Brainstorming Blog Post Topics, and can help bloggers who may be struggling to come up with ideas. In addition to prompts, the book covers other essential aspects of blogging, such as search engine optimization, SEO, affiliate marketing, and social media promotion. The authors offer actionable advice and tactics on how to increase visibility and readership through strategic use of these tools. For instance, in the chapter Inserting Strategic Links and Affiliate Links, the writers provide best practices for incorporating affiliate links to monetize blogs without sacrificing writing integrity. The book also devotes several chapters to leveraging ChatGPT to improve the content development process. The authors provide an overview of ChatGPT and explain how to use it for generating topic ideas, refining writing, and creating attention-grabbing headlines. The prompts offered throughout the book make it easy for bloggers to produce high-quality content quickly and easily. Another key feature of the book is its focus on reader engagement. The authors offer practical advice on developing relationships with and maintaining interest from the target audience. The section Interacting with Your Audience details how bloggers can encourage conversation and feedback through comments and other tools. Finally, the book concludes with a chapter on performance analysis. The authors provide guidance on measuring the success of blog content using metrics such as readership and time spent on site By monitoring these statistics bloggers can identify what is working and what is not leading to better content and higher rankings In conclusion Reinventing Blogging with ChatGPT is an invaluable resource for bloggers and authors seeking to improve their content creation process and attract a larger readership The book s emphasis on writing from prompts and practical advice for audience engagement and performance analysis make it a must read for bloggers of all skill levels Blogging for
