Creating A New Consensus On Population:

Creating a New Consensus on Population Jyoti Shankar Singh, 2013-11-12 Population growth reproductive health and reproductive rights are amongst the most pressing issues facing governments and the international community Since the world's governments agreed for the first time on far reaching and enlightened population policies at the 1994 International Conference on Population and Development ICPD in Cairo a good deal of progress has been made on these issues but major challenges remain This fully updated edition of Creating a New Consensus on Population charts international progress on efforts to address population and development reproductive health reproductive rights religion contraception and the empowerment of women Historical coverage includes the lead up process to the ICPD the conference itself and the global consensus and the ICPD Programme of Action that resulted The book then turns to how population issues have developed over the past decade and a half including follow up and implementation at the international level by the United Nations Population Fund UNFPA and other UN agencies and organizations Key international events are covered including the 1999 ICPD 5 Millennium Summit 2000 ICPD 10 and the 2005 MDG 5 as well as relevant regional events The book also examines the reorientation of policies and programmes and implementation at national levels across the world Crucially it looks at emerging issues and partnerships including the increasing role of NGOs women's groups youth groups foundations public private partnerships and other non state stakeholders Written by Jyoti Shankar Singh former ICPD Executive Coordinator this is the definitive account of how the international community has engaged with population issues and policies and it offers insight into both the ongoing challenges as well as how an international consensus can be forged on crucial global issues It is essential reading for all those involved in population health and development issues and policies world wide

Creating a New Consensus on Population Jyoti Shankar Singh, 1998 Discusses the process and outcome of the International Conference on Population and Development which was held in 1994 in Cairo Egypt The Impact of Population Growth on Tomorrow's World Royal Society (Great Britain). Discussion Meeting, 2009 International Labour Documentation International Labour Office. Central Library and Documentation Branch, International Labour Organization. Central Library and Documentation Branch, 1999 Province Building and the Federalization of immigration in Canada Mireille Paquet, 2019-03-14 Most accounts of the provincial role in Canadian immigration focus on the experience of Quebec In Province Building and the Federalization of Immigration in Canada Mireille Paquet shows that between 1990 and 2010 all ten provinces became closely involved in immigrant selection and integration This considerable change to the Canadian model of immigration governance corresponds to a broader process of federalization of immigration by which both orders of government became active in the management of immigration While Canada maintains its overall positive approach to newcomers the provinces developed and continue to develop their own formal immigration strategies and implement various selections and integration policies This book argues that the process of federalization is largely the result of provincial mobilization In each province mobilization occurred through a modern iteration of province building this time focused on immigrants as resources for provincial economies and societies Advocating for a province centred analysis of federalism Province Building and the Federalization of Immigration in Canada provides key lessons to understanding the contemporary governance of immigration in Canada Basic Communication and Assessment Prerequisites for the New Normal of Education Trif, Victorița,2021-12-10 The understanding of communication refers to canonical schemes from technologies to decisions on where how and why the semic act gains or is at risk to hypotheses and limits and to normal and unconventional exchanges of senses despite the confrontations between codes coding and decoding In this book communication is defined as concept skill potential behavior mechanism category of exchange phenomenon tool and variable This sophisticated view differs from previous studies and assumes the multiple systems of systems and meanings generated by various fieldworks that require reclaim their primacy over communication Basic Communication and Assessment Prerequisites for the New Normal of Education discusses the rivalry paradigms ambiguities new meanings and mechanisms of the crossroad between communication and assessment This book makes an inventory of developments in the area as well as analyzes new edumetrics and psychometrics and inserts new best practices This involves creating new conversational networks of global best practices and metaparadigms in order to solve current disparities and unsolved problems from the fieldwork Covering topics such as chronic conditions online educational environments and self assessment competencies this text is ideal for teachers parents students trainers decision makers researchers and academicians The Razor's Edge:International Boundaries and Political Geography: Essays in Honour of Professor Gerald Blake Gerald Henry Blake,2002-11-26 This festschrift by thirty of Blake s colleagues and former students reflects the topics and regional preoccupations Professor Blake has kept returning to throughout his long career especially the Middle East maritime boundaries and the relation between borders and demographics Several of the authors extend his work in such areas as Arctic jurisdiction environmental issues of transboundary water management and geographic information systems GIS
