Creating A Curriculum That Works:

Creating a Curriculum that Works Lorraine A. Ozar, 1994 This book offers an approach to curriculum decision making aimed at helping Catholic schools become or remain values based learning centered communities for the 21st century The outcomes based approach argues that educators have three primary responsibilities identify what is the significant learning design valid ways for students to demonstrate that learning and find ways to help that learning occur more effectively The book is designed to promote an understanding of the three essential pieces of a learning centered curriculum outcomes assessments and strategies Following the introduction and the foreword chapter 2 defines key terms Chapters 3 through 10 expand on the eight principles of the outcomes centered curriculum decision making approach 1 shift the focus from inputs to outputs 2 write specific learning outcomes objectives for each educational goal 3 choose a set of outcomes that integrate both the values integration and discipline specific planes 4 design a match among outcomes assessments and strategies 5 develop a written curriculum that supports the match 6 design valid assessments 7 utilize teaching strategies that respect the natural functioning of the brain and 8 address religious education and values formation in the curriculum Chapter 11 describes the outcomes centered curriculum as part of the systemic growth reform cycle Seventy nine figures are included LMI
