Petitions and Petitioning in Europe and North America from the Late Medieval Period to the Present Richard Huzzey,Maartje Janse,Henry Miller,Joris Oddens,Brodie Waddell,2024-06-20 The first study of petitioning from the late medieval period to the era of e petitions Petitions and Petitioning in Europe and North America explains why these practices have been central to the exercise and contestation of power across North America and Europe Rulers and Ruled in Late Medieval England G. L. Harriss,Rowena E. Archer,Simon Walker,1995-01-01 How power was distributed and exercised is a key issue in understanding attitudes and assumptions in late medieval England The essays in this volume all deal with those who had the power to make political decisions whether kings nobles or gentry courtiers or clergy While ultimately power rested on force it was enshrined in the law and more usually exercised by influence and by the dangling of reward Most disputes were settled without violence if often with recourse to prolonged struggles in the courts but those who offended against established interests could be punished severely as the cases of Sir John Mortimer and of Bishop Reginald Pecock show These essays presented to Gerald Harriss who has done so much to illuminate the history of the period show not only how power was exercised but also how men of the time thought about it Contributors Rowena E Archer Christine Carpenter Jeremy Catto Rosemary Horrox R W Hoyle Maurice Keen Dominic Lockett Philippa Maddern S J Payling Edward Powell
