Literary Rooms Katharina Christ-Pielensticker, 2021-03-26 The four prose texts discussed in Literary Rooms position themselves in a literary tradition which highlights the manifold purposes the private room may serve it is a mirror of the inhabitant a context in which to position the self a place of and motor for identity quests a rich metaphor and a second skin around the inhabitant's physical body Even in times of increasing globalization and urbanization the room continues to root the inhabitant it serves as a retreat from the world and as a place in which to re negotiate questions of belonging gender class and ethnicity At the same time the room is inevitably porous and constantly oscillates between inclusion and exclusion The literary texts examined in this book are each highly fragmented and gesture towards a fragmentation of the contemporary world out of which they have grown as well as towards an abundance of fragmented self images Linking the approaches of narratology globalization and spatial criticism Literary Rooms argues that in order to account for the spatial properties of the room discourses developed during the spatial turn need to be extended and reevaluated The American Stationer ,1893 Geyer's Stationer ,1907 The Crayon Man Natascha Biebow,2019 Celebrating the inventor of the Crayola crayon This gloriously illustrated picture book biography tells the inspiring story of Edwin Binney the inventor of one of the world s most beloved toys A perfect fit among favorites like The Day the Crayons Quit and Balloons Over Broadway purple mountains majesty mauvelous jungle green razzmatazz What child doesn t love to hold a crayon in their hands But children didn t always have such magical boxes of crayons Before Edwin Binney set out to change things children couldn t really even draw in color Here s the true story of an inventor who so loved nature s vibrant colors that he found a way to bring the outside world to children in a bright green box for only a nickel With experimentation and a special knack for listening Edwin Binney and his dynamic team at Crayola created one of the world s most enduring best loved childhood toys empowering children to dream in COLOR The Bush Magazine ,1921 Plowing the Dark Richard Powers,2001-08-11 On the shores of Puget Sound a band of virtual reality researchers is building an empty white room that can become a jungle a painting or a cathedral In a war torn Mediterranean city an American is held hostage in another empty white room These two remote places will be linked by the power of the imagination Primary Education ,1909 Philippine Teacher ,1928 Walden's Stationer and Printer ,1912 Crayon World ,2001-01-01 Crayola: Ellie's Crayon Adventure Sarah Glenn Marsh,Crayola LLC,2022-09-27 Welcome to a world of infinite colors When Ellie and her class take a field trip to the Crayola Factory to learn how crayons are made they are greeted by rooms full of color and bustling with activity From mixing pigments to wrapping and sorting there are machines and people hard at work at every turn There are even magical creatures called color catchers who travel the world in search of Pacific Blue Wild Watermelon and Sunglow who really steal the show But it isn t until Ellie accidentally knocks into some equipment that she and her friends learn just how limitless the world of color possibilities can be The American Exporter ,1908 Crayon World Angela C.
