Creating Strategic Vision Long Range Planning For National Security:

Creating Strategic Vision ,1987 Creating Strategic Vision Perry M. Smith,Jerrold P. Allen,1987-09-01 An innovative creative book about various ways to plan for the future including the use of 3alternative futures² as an analytical methodology Based generally upon matters of national strategy although its principles apply throughout government at the Federal State and local levels and in all generic planning areas This book can be viewed as a beginning on how to plan long range governmental organizations Creating Strategic Vision Perry McCoy Smith,1987 Assembly ,1987 National Defense and Security United States. Superintendent of Documents,1990 Redeemer Nation Orrin Schwab,2004 In this book Dr Orrin Schwab develops the concept of the modern technocratic state as part of a global technocratic culture and civilization The author argues that technocratic cultural and institutional forms were and are part of a collective script for Western culture The American script combined the scientific commercial and technological aspects of the Enlightenment with the radical 17th century Protestant belief in America as a new Zion In the twentieth century the synthesis of mission along with global technocratic knowledge and institutions created the Wilsonian liberal technocratic order As the principal agent and protector of the modern capitalist international system America the self defined Redeemer Nation has moved through the controlled anarchy of international relations from one war and crisis to the next confirmed in its self defined role and mission Our New National Security Strategy James J. Tritten,1992-09-30 This book is an analysis of President Bush s Regional Defense Strategy first unveiled in Aspen Colorado on August 2 1990 This strategy involves a mix of active reserve and reconstitutable forces and General Colin Powell s Base Force If implemented the new strategy and force structure would return significant U S ground and air forces to the continental United States where most would be demobilized In the event of a major crisis the United States would rely on active and reserve forces for a contingency response much as was done for Operation Desert Storm The new national security strategy is based upon the 25 percent budget cut negotiated with Congress a greatly depleted Russian threat and a new international security environment that assumes two years warning of a European centered global war with the former USSR There are four major critical factors upon which the new strategy depends 1 the continued decline of the Russians as a threat to world stability 2 the ability of the intelligence community to meet new challenges 3 the behavior of the allies and Congress and 4 the ability of industry to meet new demands The new strategy is not simply an adjustment to existing defense doctrine or strategy but rather a fundamental revision of the way the United States has approached defense since 1945 Students and scholars interested in politico military strategy and government policy will find this book of great interest Air University Review ,1986-09 Proceedings - United States Naval Institute United States Naval Institute,1990-12 National Security Issues ,1986 Government Reports Announcements & Index ,1991 Naval War College Review ,1990 Government Reports Annual Index ,1988 Airpower Journal ,1989 The Presidency in Transition James P. Pfiffner,Ralph Gordon Hoxie,1989 Naval

War College Review Naval War College (U.S.),1989 Assignment--Pentagon Perry McCoy Smith,1993 An engagingly written guide aimed particularly at those who are newly assigned to the Pentagon but also of interest to scholars reporters and others who deal with the Pentagon Major General Smith USAF ret separates myths from realities explains practicalities and tells how to negotiate the Arms Control Today ,1987 LIC 2010 Rod Paschall,1990 Denne bog omhandler først elsen for fremtidig krigsf relse Global Reach--global Power Barbara J. Faulkenberry,1996 The analysis presented in this thesis evaluates the contents of past Air Force strategic vision documents and studies the process used to create such documents The thesis argument is that strategic vision document can fulfill important functions for an organization and that greater attention to the process of creating these documents can result in a more effective final product The author defines a strategic vision document as a formal written product endorsed by the organization s senior leader that provides broad and motivational guidance for the organization in the present while providing sage direction for the future Based on current literature addressing the subject the author proposes a framework of three attributes and two functions for strategic vision statements The attributes of such statements are a declaration of organizational identity a disclosure of future goals and a view of the methods by which goals will be met The two functions of strategic vision are to unify internally and advocate externally Within this framework the author examines three past Air Force strategic vision documents for content and details the known processes behind their creation and distribution General Arnold s 1945 report Air Power and the Future the 1990 White Paper The Air Force and US National Security Global Reach Global Power and the 1992 White Paper Global Reach Global Power The Evolving Air Force Contribution to National Security Additionally the author discusses the processes involved in two other official works Global Presence and the on going efforts aimed at creating a new Air Force strategic vision
