How to Write a Short Story Randy Whiteside, 2018-12 Do you have a story swirling inside you, just waiting for you to write it? Yes. Consider this book your call to adventure. This book is more than an ordinary book. This book is an enchanted map to fantastical worlds of magic and wonder. Just like a ship at sea will follow the stars to its destination, this book will allow you to chart a course to a well-written short story. As you progress through the pages of this book, you will begin to experience creative writing magic as your imagination lights up with ideas of courageous heroes, mysterious villains, playful sidekicks, and enchanted worlds. This step-by-step guide to writing a short story teaches:

1. How Randy uses the story structure outline found in this book to write compelling stories that readers love.
2. How to use the guideposts of a time-tested story structure to construct a compelling storyline with a dynamic main character.
3. How to creatively write a story that connects to the core of your reading audience.
4. How to write a quest that will allow your main character to prevail against seemingly insurmountable odds and defeat a well-defined villain.
5. How to bring all of these story elements together to deliver a short story that amazes and inspires your readers.

Your story is your dream, a dream that includes a lovable main character that you want to share with your reading audience. This book is the blueprint that can help guide your story into reality. You are the author, and this is your map.
