Christian Belief In A Postmodern World The Full Wealth Of Conviction:

Christian Belief in a Postmodern World Diogenes Allen,1989-01-01 This book provides a philosophical argument for the reasonableness of Christian faith in today s world Diogenes Allen shows how Christian belief is now being supported by scientific and philosophical principles perhaps for the first time in 300 years An Introduction to Christian Theology Richard J. Plantinga,Thomas R. Thompson,Matthew D. Lundberg,2022-11-03 A journey in Christian theology through biblical historical and thematic perspectives with special attention to the context of today s world Christianity and the Nation-State Gary Chartier,2023-07-27 In Christianity and the Nation State Gary Chartier provocatively offers readers unexpected critical distance from some familiar ways of understanding justifying and navigating existing political arrangements People in multiple societies are posing important questions about the authority and functions of the contemporary nation state and about potential alternatives to this seemingly inescapable institution Chartier seeks to develop a distinctive theological response to the conditions prompting these questions Affirming liberalism and cosmopolitanism he reflects critically on nationalism localism religious establishment and theological accounts of political authority He highlights links between sin and state power and underscores deficiencies in democratic rhetoric and theory He rejects the idea of a global government advocating a nonterritorial alternative he labels radical consociationalism Moreover he presents concrete suggestions for life under the rule of the state Theological Fragments Rubén Rosario Rodríguez,2023-05-23 The swelling ranks of religious nones those who do not identify with any particular religious tradition have demonstrated that traditional Christian apologetics set on delivering a universally accepted objectively verifiable system that proves the truth and superiority of Christian belief has failed Turned off by organized Christianity s hypocrisy and politics of intolerance millennials and Generation Z have rejected such domineering forms of reasoning aimed at winning converts through logical argument Not only is this misguided missional strategy argues Rub n Rosario Rodr guez but it s grounded in bad theology as well The propositional truth claims imply that if you accept the argument you must accept the Christian faith too Instead of this triumphalist understanding of Christian truth Rosario argues for a broken and contrite Christian theology that can help make sense of a fractured world Realizing that fragments of truth are often all we have he points out that the search for the truth of God and the self will most often be found while engaged in the struggle for justice Theological Fragments is not another set of strategies for how to win back millennials Rather it provides a foundational theological vision necessary to the work of inviting the nones to hear the gospel afresh Theology for a Troubled Believer Diogenes Allen,2010-02-01 The reasons people are attracted to Christianity and its teachings are many and varied In this book Allen hopes to supply more of the information pieces of the puzzle that are needed if a person is to make sense of the Christian understanding of God and our life in the universe More philosopher than theologian Allen writes for a troubled believer dealing with issues and questions that emerge during Christians daily lives and in the course of contemplating

Christian faith Persons in Relation Najib George Awad,2014 Tracing out the origins of the Trinitarian revival in the modern era particularly on account of the influence of Schleiermacher Tillich Barth Rahner and Pannenberg through to the destabilizing effects of postmodernity on Trinitarian discourse the author provides a critical hermeneutic for the evaluation and implementation of thoughtful Trinitarian theology in the contemporary world Within this frame the author argues for viewing the Trinity as the intellectual and conceptual context and interdisciplinary arena of interaction between theology and other forms of intellectual inquiries to generate a robust multifaceted and historically fluent doctrine of the Trinity

Gale,Alexander R. Pruss,2003 The latter third of the 20th century has seen the philosophical defence of theism many philosophers were caught off guard because they assumed that metaphysics and theology had been dealt with. Moreover the leaders of this renaissance were analytically rooted philosophers. Upon examination however it is clear that significant developments in philosophical theism historically have come upon the heels of breakthroughs in the core areas of philosophy concerning meaning, logic and scientific methodology, cornerstones of analytic philosophy. This volume attempts to document this golden era of analytical theism. Encounter, 1990. Hermeneutics as Theological Prolegomena Charles J. Scalise, 1994. Faith in Theory and Practice Elizabeth S. Radcliffe, Elizabeth Schmidt Radcliffe, Carol J. White, 1993. Two views of theistic faith are presented in this book. Some contributors see faith as a set of beliefs about God and seek substantiation for those beliefs. Others perceive faith less as a set of beliefs than as a special way of living in relationship to God. The connection between these two views is an intriguing theme winding through the collection and explicitly addressed by Michael A. Brown in the closing essay.
