Christian Theology Of Religions A Systematic Reflection On The Christian Understanding Of World Re:

Introducing Christian Theologies, Volume Two Victor I. Ezigbo, 2015-12-31 Should Christianity's theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with voices of Christian communities from across the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from around the world highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine

Along the Many Paths of God José Ma Vigil, Luiza E. Tomita, Marcelo Barros, 2008 Latin American theology is associated with liberation basic Christian communities primacy of praxis and option for the poor The present volume shows that Latin American theologians added new themes to the previous ones religious pluralism inter religious dialogue and macro ecumenism It is the fruit of a program of the Theological Commission of the Ecumenical Association of Third World Theologians EATWOT in Latin America to work out a liberating theology of religions

Christian Theology Alister E. McGrath, 2016-09-26 CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY The genius of Alister E McGrath is his remarkable ability to write in a clear concise and lucid manner that draws both teachers and students to participate with the great thinkers of the Christian tradition past and present Education and illumination are the abundant fruits of this massive well organized text which is sure to appeal to a wide range of Protestant Catholic and Orthodox audiences For this we are indebted to the author Dennis Ngien Professor of Systematic Theology Tyndale University College and Seminary Toronto Canada For sheer comprehensiveness clarity and coherence Alister McGrath has produced the definitive textbook Always accurate and engaging students are gently introduced to the gift of Theology in a memorable way Ian S Markham Dean and President of Virginia Theological Seminary Praise for the fifth edition Alister McGrath has proven himself a master at engagingly and simply introducing Christian theology in all of its contested complexity All who work at the critical appropriation of the theological tradition stand in debt to McGrath M Douglas Meeks Cal Turner Chancellor Professor of Theology and Wesleyan Studies Vanderbilt University Divinity School Now celebrating its 25th year of publication Christian Theology is one of the most internationally acclaimed textbooks in this area today Completely rewritten for the sixth edition it remains the ideal introduction to the beliefs and interpretation of Christianity It is specifically designed for students with no prior knowledge presenting the primary themes and debates of Christian theology with clarity and historical context This new edition retains all the elements that have made it so successful while also including significant additions and developments There is an increased discussion of contemporary theology to complement the excellent coverage of historical material Important new information has also been added in areas such as the Holy Spirit contemporary non Western theologies and feminist voices in Christian theology The text is rich in pedagogy to encourage student learning featuring a two colour design glossary end of chapter discussion questions and much more Written by renowned theologian Alister E McGrath this classic text is a clear lively and concise introduction that provides instructors with the tools they need to engage with their students on Christian theology

The Age of Global Dialogue Leonard J. Swidler, 2016-11-08 Thinking beyond the absolutes Christians and other religious persons increasingly find deabsolutized in our modern thought world Swidler reflects on the ways we humans think about the world and its meaning now that increasingly we notice that there are other ways of understanding the world than the way we grew up in In this new situation we need to develop a common language we can use together both to appreciate our neighbors and enrich ourselves what the author calls Ecumenical Esperanto because it should serve as a common language without replacing any of the living languages of our religious and ideological traditions Of course such thinking anew about the world and its meaning must necessarily mean thinking anew about all of our religious beliefs but this time in dialogue

What is Religion? Nigel Ajay Kumar, 2014-01-15 What Is Religion is one of those questions rarely asked by Christian theologians who engage in interreligious discourse Nigel Ajay Kumar makes the case however that to answer this question is critical for Christian scholars who want to negotiate multiple religious identities as well as for those who want a clearer understanding of their own faith as religion Kumar takes a historical and theological approach to answering this question The history of the concept of religion is traced from biblical times to the Indian independence era Then a theological answer is offered not only by looking at the classical Indian theologian Pandipeddi Chenchiah but also by listening to other contemporary secular and theological voices This is the South Asian Edition of the original Wipf Stock edition 2013 with the same name
