Heinrich Emil Brunner

Christian Doctrine Of Creation Redemption:

The Christian Doctrine of Creation and Redemption Emil Brunner, 2014-10-10 Emil Brunner 1889 1966 was the most widely read theologian in the English speaking world throughout the mid twentieth century Brunner was Professor of Systematic and Practical Theology at the University of Zurich from 1924 55 His key works The Mediator The Divine Imperative and Man in Revolt were standard texts for Protestant seminaries for decades Dogmatics: The Christian doctrine of creation and redemption Emil Brunner, 1950 The Christian Doctrine of Creation and Redemption , 1962

How God Acts Denis Edwards, 2010-01-27 From providence and miracles to resurrection and intercessory prayer Edwards shows how a basically noninterventionist model of divine action does justice to the universe as we know and also to central convictions of Christian faith about the goodness of God the promises of God and the fulfillment of creation Here is wonderfully lucid theology supporting an excitement of how God is at work in the universe The Christian Doctrine of Creation and Redemption Heinrich Emil Brunner, 1950 CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE OF CREATION AND REDEMPTION, EMIL. BRUNNER, 2018 God's Good World Jonathan R. Wilson, 2013-04-15 The doctrine of creation has often been neglected in Christian theology Distinguished evangelical theologian Jonathan Wilson exposes what has been missing in current theological discourse and offers an original constructive work on this doctrine The book unites creation and redemption showing the significance of God's work of creation for understanding the good news of redemption in Jesus Christ Wilson develops a trinitarian account of the life of the world and sets forth how to live wisely hopefully peaceably joyfully and generously in that world He also shows how a mature doctrine of creation can help the church think practically about contemporary issues including creation care sexuality technology food and water and more The Christian Doctrine of Creation and Redemption , 1980

Dogmatics II Emil Brunner, 2025-04-24 One of the great twentieth century works of theology Emil Brunner's Dogmatics series presents a profoundly biblical systematic theology Finding a path between Barth and Bultmann Brunner explores key doctrines such as the doctrine of God creation and redemption and the doctrine of the church and of faith These foundational texts from a leading theologian of the 20th century are crucial for scholars and students illuminating how modern Protestant theology was formed in the last century The first volume serves as an introduction to Brunner's view of dogmatics setting out the nature position and necessity of dogmatics before exploring the many facets of the doctrine of God In detailed vigorous explanation Brunner considers the nature and will of God including his name his holiness his wisdom and his glory Thorough insightful and extensive this first volume is an illuminating beginning to this series The second volume explores the fundamental concepts of the protestant doctrine from creation and the creator to man's position within creation sin and its consequences and the saving work of Jesus Brunner explores all of the possibilities of these fundamentals and his detailed thoughtful arguments are designed as he says to set us free to have a faith which is based on nothing save the Love of God revealed in Jesus Christ The third and final volume focusses on the theology of the Church as a reflection of God's self-revelation through the Holy Spirit and an eternal consummation of Divine self-communication. Drawing together the understanding gleaned in the previous two volumes, Brunner addresses the nature of the church and faith to bring his systematic biblical theology into the experiences of his readers. Dogmatics II Emil Brunner, 2002. Available in three volumes, this is one of the great works of 20th-century theology. Brunner presents a profoundly biblical systematic theology finding a path between the ideas of Barth and Bultmann. Vol. II: Christian Doctrine of Creation and Redemption. Basic Christian Doctrine John H. Leith, 1993-01-01. John Leith provides a brief but comprehensive statement of Christian faith for contemporary Christians. He considers the theologians of the ancient church and affirms the faith of the ancient creeds. The Christian Doctrine of Creation and Redemption Emil Brunner, 1952. The Christian Doctrine of Creation and Redemption, Vol. 2 Emil Brunner, 2017-11-20. Excerpt from The Christian Doctrine of Creation and Redemption Vol. 2 Dogmatics. During my last visit to the United States, which took place shortly after the publication of the first volume of the Dogmatics, a theological colleague expressed the desire that I would develop further the point of view contained in my book The Divine Human Encounter: Wahrheit als Begegnung. He urged that he regarded this view as decisive for the development of theology and that he wished me to expand it within the whole framework of Christian doctrine. I replied that I had already made a beginning in The Christian Doctrine of God and that what I had begun in that volume was being expanded in two later volumes. Samuelson, 1994-11-24. The topic of this book is creation. It breaks down into discussions of two distinct but interrelated questions: what does the universe look like and what is its origin? The opinions about creation considered by Norbert Samuelson come from the Hebrew scriptures, Greek philosophy, Jewish philosophy, and contemporary physics. His perspective is Jewish, liberal, and philosophical. It is Jewish because the foundation of the discussion is biblical texts interpreted in the light of traditional rabbinic texts. It is philosophical because the subject matter is important in both past and present philosophical texts and to Jewish philosophy in particular. Finally, it is liberal because the authorities consulted include heterodox as well as orthodox Jewish sources. The ensuing discussion leads to original conclusions about a diversity of topics, including the limits of human reason and religious faith and the relevance of scientific models to religious doctrine. A System of Christian Doctrine Isaak August Dorner, 1890. Creation and Salvation: A companion on recent theological movements E. M. Conradie, 2012. Christians trying to save the planet have to relate creation with salvation. This
