Christian Ethics as Witness David Haddorff,2011-01-01

Christian ethics is less a system of principles rules or even virtues and more of a free and open ended responsible witness to God's gracious action to be with and for others and the world Postmodernity has left us with the risky uncertainty of knowing and doing the good It also leaves us with the global risks of political violence and terrorism economic globalization and financial crisis and environmental destruction and global climate change How should Christians respond to these problems This book creatively explores how Christian ethics is best understood as a witness to God's action thereby providing the ethical framework for addressing the various problematic social issues that put our world at risk Haddorff develops the notion of witness through a detailed study of Karl Barth's theological ethics Barth he argues provides a language enabling us to know what a Christian ethics of witness actually looks like in both theory and in practice In correspondence to God's gracious action Christians remain free to think and act in faith hope and love in response to their unique circumstances even in a world at risk In their witness Christians remain confident that God has not abandoned the world but loves and cares for its future

The Ethical Foundations of Postmodernity Nina Michaela von Dahlen,Nina Michaela Von Dahlen,2013-07

A return to ethics which began in the 1980s and 1990s and is still predominant today has been ascribed to literary studies and theory In this book theoretical issues within ethics are discussed based on the examples of literary analyses The authors examined are Margaret Atwood Jeffrey Eugenides and Robert M Pirsig The main questions concern the foundation on which ethical concepts are based and the way in which such concepts function These topics are evidently connected to matters of human concepts and human nature in general which are understood to be fundamentally communicative Contrary to popular conclusions of relativity the need for a realist foundation of ethics implying universal validity will be revealed It is not only possible but also necessary to develop such an idea of ethics within a postmodern relativist framework A communicative foundationalist ethics will thus be designed With regard to literature an increasing emergence of first person narrative can be witnessed in addition to a new focus on a realist and more mimetic style after a peak of pluralist conceptions at the end of the twentieth and the beginning of the twenty first centuries The analysis of such narrative situations will reveal the significance of the narrative generation of individual personalities for an understanding of ethical questions The conflict between relativist and realist points of view centers on the postmodern critique of the individual The study of the literary generation of individuals will elucidate means of confronting this critique The theoretical background includes the poststructuralist and communicative concepts of Judith Butler and Seyla Benhabib as well as Ernst Tugendhat's analytical approach Nina von Dahlen studied English language and literature philosophy sociology and educational sciences at the Universities of Hamburg and Heidelberg This book is based on her Ph D thesis

The Future of Hope Miroslav Volf, William Henry Katerberg, 2004 Over the last three decades a major cultural shift has taken place in the attitudes of Western societies toward the future Modernity's eclipse by postmodernity is characterized in large part by the loss of hope for a future substantially better than the present Old optimism about human progress has given way to uncertainty and fear In this book scholars from various disciplines theology the social sciences and the humanities explore the move from a culture of optimism to a culture of ambiguity and they seek to infuse today's jaded language of hope with a new vitality The Future of Hope offers a powerful critique of today's stifling cultural climate and shows why the vision of hope central to Christian faith must be a basic component of any flourishing society The first section of the book sets the context with telling cultural criticism of modernity The second section focuses on affinities between premodern Christian visions of hope and twentieth century thought The final section of the book examines the relationship between postmodern thought Christian tradition and biblical hope addressing how Christians in a postmodern world can best articulate their faith Written by truly profound thinkers these chapters are diverse in their content methodologies and temperament yet they are united by a deep engagement with both the Christian tradition and the larger cultural and intellectual climate in which we live and work The Future of Hope can thus be read not just as an attempt at retrieval of hope for today but as itself one small act of hope in an age when people too seldom take time to think critically and hopefully Contributors David Billings Robert Paul Doede Kevin L Hughes Paul Edward Hughes Daniel Johnson William Katerberg John Milbank Jurgen Moltmann James K A Smith Miroslav Volf Nicholas Wolterstorff

Moral Leadership in a Postmodern Age Robin Gill, 1997-02-01 Robin Gill examines the issues that connect faith and moral leadership in an increasingly fragmented and relativistic world Theories of Modernity and Postmodernity Bryan S. Turner, 1990 This book encapsulates the recent debate on the concepts of modernity and postmodernity Arguments over modernism and its aftermath are traced to their origins in art architecture and literature The authors then focus on the contribution of sociology to this cultural dispute through the theories of Weber Simmel Habermas Lyotard and Baudrillard Throughout Theories of Modernity and Postmodernity demonstrates the connections between traditional problems of sociological theory and the contemporary debate around modernity Crisis and Change Jan-Olav Henriksen, Tage Kurtén, 2012-03-15 A common basis for the project on which this volume is based is that one cannot understand religion and ethics without paying attention to the different contexts in and by means of which these cultural elements are expressed This approach makes both religion and ethics liquid and allows us to see them as based on specific contingencies rather than as expressions of some essential features The changing societal and cultural conditions in late modern Western societies pose new challenges for established religion theology and ethics Not only does religion itself appear to be in some kind of crisis but also many of the established ways of understanding and doing religion theology and ethics appear obsolete inadequate or dated Against such a backdrop the articles in the present volume represent attempts to rethink theology and religion with regard to these late modern conditions The volume is the result of a joint undertaking of two research groups one based in bo Finland and the other in Oslo Norway which have since 2006 focused on exploring the contextual character of theology in understanding both Christian belief and Christian ethics The challenge of the idea that Christianity appears in new ways and in new contexts and of investigating what that means is pursued in various ways The Journal of Markets & Morality, 2003 Christian Ethics in Ecumenical Context Shin Chiba, George R. in North Atlantic countries theologies of liberation have emerged as a resource and inspiration for people seeking social and political freedom Over the last three decades liberation theology has irrevocably altered religious thinking and practice throughout the Americas Liberation Theologies Postmodernity and the Americas provides a meaningful and spirited debate on vital interpretive issues in religion philosophy and ethics The renowned group of scholars explore liberation theologies uses of discourses of emancipation revolution and utopia in contrast with postmodernism s suspicion of grand narratives while assessing what the postmodernism liberation debate means for strategies of social and political transformation Guided by the experiences of those at the margins of social power liberation theologies demystify the eurocentric myths of secularization and modernity and calls for a re appraisal of religion in contemporary societies Contributors Edmund Arens David Batstone Maria Clara Bingemer Enrique Dussel Gustavo Gutierrez Jurgen Habermas Franz Hinkelammert Dwight Hopkins Lois Ann Lorentzen Eduardo Mendieta Amos Nascimento Elsa Tamez Mark McLain Taylor and Sharon Welch Robert Allen Warrior

The Future of Reason, Science and Faith Revd Dr J Andrew Kirk, 2013-05-28 Focusing on the history of ideas this book explores important questions concerning knowledge in relation to philosophy science ethics and Christian faith Kirk contributes to the current debate about the intellectual basis and integrity of Western culture exploring controversial issues concerning the notions of modernity and post modernity Repositioning the Christian faith as a valid dialogue partner with contemporary secular movements in philosophy and ethics Kirk seeks to show that in post Christian Europe the Christian faith still possesses intellectual resources worthy to be reckoned with This book s principal argument is that contemporary Western society faces a cultural crisis It explores what appears to be an historical enigma namely the question of why Western intellectual endeavours in philosophy and science seem to have abandoned the search for a source of knowledge able to draw together disparate pieces of information provided by different disciplines Kirk draws conclusions particularly in the area of ethical decision making from this apparent failure and invites readers to consider Christian theism afresh as a means for the renewal of culture and society

Anglo-american Postmodernity Nancey Murphy, 2018-02-19 The term postmodern is generally used to refer to current work in philosophy literary criticism and feminist thought inspired by Continental thinkers such as Friedrich Nietzsche and Jacques Derrida In this book Nancey Murphy appropriates the term to describe emerging patterns in Anglo American thought and to indicate their radical break from the thought patterns of Enlightened modernity The book examines the shift from modern to postmodern in three areas epistemology philosophy of language and metaphysics Murphy contends that whole clusters of terms in each of these disciplines have taken on new uses in the past fifty years and that these changes have radical consequences for all areas of academia especially philosophy of science philosophy of religion and ethics

The Encyclopedia of Christianity, Vol. 5 Erwin Fahlbusch, Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1999 Written by leading scholars from around the world the articles in this volume range from sin Sufism and terrorism to theology in the 19th and 20th centuries Vatican I and II and the virgin birth and Islam Jalalul Haq,1999 Postmodern Philosophy and Christian Thought Merold Westphal,1999 Are postmodern philosophy and Christian thought so diametrically opposed that never the twain shall meet Or are various postmodern philosophies in spite of their secular provenance open to religious appropriation These thirteen lively original essays awaken secular postmodernisms and various modes of Christian thinking from their ideological complacency An open space for passionate dialogue emerges from conversations that powerfully engage both intellectual and religious points of view

Post-modernity, Paganism,
