Christianity From Hilary Of Poitiers To Ignatius:

Christianity Wallace Jungers, 2005 This book encompasses an overview of the institutional and theological issues of Christianity during the period from Hilary of Poitiers until Ignatius of Loyola i e from the 4th to the 16th centuries It evaluates the impact that the great Christian teachers had on the development of Christianity during this period teachers such as Paul Hilary Augustine Aquinas Luther and Loyola Luther s revolt with his 95 theses began the Reformation so badly needed at the time Some few years later Ignatius and his followers began a Counter Reformation Bellarmine and Suarez both Jesuits were the principle disputants for the Roman offensive Ignatius was a military man strongly imbued with the 16th century Spanish vision of crusading idealism and just the right antidote needed in Western Europe to bring the masses back to Rome Ignatius gathered a band of like minded men around him and established the Society of Jesus the Jesuits in 1534 They understood themselves to be a company of light cavalry who freely placed themselves in the service of the Roman Church Ignatius chose for his motto Ad Maiorem Dei Gloriam For the Greater Glory of God and his loyal band of soldiers embarked on the ministry to educate the layity not only in Catholic doctrine but also in the great classics of humanist culture The decrees of the Council of Trent were formative for the Catholic Church for the following four centuries and missionaries brought the Gospel to the New World as the Church prepared to face the challenges of the modern world A Dictionary of

Wolfram Kinzig, 2024-07-01 This history of early Christian creeds contains an up to date account of their origin and development from the credal texts in the New Testament to the fully fledged classical formulae of the 4th century It includes the creeds use and alteration in subsequent periods until the time of Charlemagne and the beginnings of the filioque controversy In addition the author provides a scholarly commentary on the most common ancient confessions the Nicene Creed and the Apostles Creed Going beyond previous studies the book contains chapters dedicated to the use of creeds in law art music everyday life and even magic Recently discovered source texts such as a new Ethiopic version of the Roman Creed and a short recension of the Creed of Nicaea Constantinople receive extensive treatment Credal developments in the eastern churches beyond the borders of the Roman Empire complete this comprehensive overview This volume is intended both as a textbook for advanced students of theology and cognate disciplines and as a reference book on the creeds in a wide range of contexts All source texts are accompanied by modern English translations Winner of the Alberigo Award 2024 awarded by the European Academy of Religion A History of Christian Doctrines Karl Rudolf Hagenbach,1881 The Early Christians in Rome Henry Donald Maurice Spence-Jones,1911 The Fathers of the Church in Christian Theology Fedou,2019-06-26 The main purpose of The Fathers of the Church in Christian Theology is to argue that Patristic studies still has much to contribute to theological reflections in our time Throughout history the reading of the Fathers of the Church has made major contributions to Christian thinking This fecundity was notably verified in the 20th century through the work of theologians like Henri de Lubac and Hans Urs von Balthasar It was as well manifested broadly in the life of the church that with the Vatican II council drew from the patristic tradition a source of inspiration for its own renewal However even though the research and work on early Christianity has experienced considerable growth for several decades Christian theology is today confronted with new questions Thus what status to recognize in the exegesis of the Fathers Has not the distance from the heritage of patristic thinking been widened More radically do not the demands of contextual theologies on diverse continents compel a distancing away from some traditions that formerly were principally limited to Mediterranean and European regions If these questions must be taken into account they nevertheless cannot dispense with Christian theology being today as yesterday inspired and made fecund by the writings of the Fathers Michel F dou attempts to shed light on what in our own era justifies the necessity of a patristic theology He shows how the reading of the Fathers contributes to the understanding of the faith in the different fields of Christian thinking It highlights the importance of their writings for the spiritual life and the valuable nourishment that they thus offer to our times The Apostolic Fathers Joseph Barber Lightfoot,1885 The Early Persecutions of the Christians Leon Hardy Canfield,1913 The Idea of Atonement in Christian Theology Hastings Rashdall,1919 The Apostolic Fathers ...: S.
