Gender Stevi Jackson, Sue Scott, 2002 Offering students an informed overview of some of the most significant sociological work on gender produced over the last three decades these readings are supplemented by a substantial critical introduction and editorial commentary

Separate and Dominate Christine Delphy, 2015-06-02 Feminist Christine Delphy co-founded the journal Nouvelles questions féministes with Simone de Beauvoir in the 1970s and became one of the most influential figures in French feminism Today Delphy remains a prominent and controversial feminist thinker a rare public voice denouncing the racist motivations of the government's 2011 ban of the Muslim veil Castigating humanitarian liberals for demanding the cultural assimilation of the women they are purporting to save Delphy shows how criminalizing Islam in the name of feminism is fundamentally paradoxical Separate and Dominate is Delphy's manifesto lambasting liberal hypocrisy and calling for a fluid understanding of political identity that does not place different political struggles in a false opposition She dismantles the absurd claim that Afghanistan was invaded to save women and that homosexuals and immigrants alike should reserve their self-expression for private settings She calls for a true universalism that sacrifices no one at the expense of others In the aftermath of the Charlie Hebdo massacre her arguments appear more prescient and pressing than ever The Routledge Dictionary of Twentieth-century Political Thinkers Robert Benewick, Philip Green, 1998 It presents the ideas concepts and doctrines of leading social scientists philosophers economists and great personalities who influenced 20th century political thought and action Fifty-One Key Feminist Thinkers Lori J. Marso, 2016-07-15 The feminist thinkers in this collection are the designated fifty one key feminist thinkers historical and contemporary and also the authors of the entries Collected here are fifty one key thinkers and fifty one authors recognizing that women are fifty one percent of the population There are actually one hundred and two thinkers collected in these pages as each author is a feminist thinker too scholars writers poets and activists well established and emerging old and young and in between These feminists speak the languages of art politics literature education classics gender studies film queer theory global affairs political theory science fiction African American studies sociology American studies geography history philosophy poetry and psychoanalysis Speaking in all these diverse tongues conversations made possible by feminist thinking are introduced and engaged Key figures include Simone de Beauvoir Doris Lessing Toni Morrison Cindy Sherman Octavia Butler Marina Warner Elizabeth Cady Stanton Chantal Akerman Betty Friedan Audre Lorde Margaret Fuller Sappho Adrienne Rich Each entry is supported by a list of the thinker s major works along with further reading suggestions An ideal resource for students and academics alike this text will appeal to all those interested in the fields of gender studies women s studies and women s history and politics Education and Women Empowerment Ace Buck &, 2019-04-06 Education fills in as the conductor by which women since quite a while ago established in the private circle move into people in general circle and declare themselves on an equivalent premise with men As a springboard to business and monetary freedom advocates say education gives the basic establishment from which encourage strengthening streams It is in this setting the present paper tries to discover the connection between imbalance in education and women strengthening To discover the effect of disparity in education on different parameters a relationship framework has been computed To know the level of women strengthening in different parts of the world the factors like female offer in national parliament level of female education and female work drive support rate has taken Engaging women through education has turned into a best need of worldwide advancement endeavors Erin Murphy Graham draws on over a time of subjective research to look at the encounters of Juanita and eighteen other women who took part in the SAT program Their stories propose the straightforward yet unpretentious ways education can start the strengthening procedure and additionally the part of men and young men in advancing sexual orientation correspondence Christine Delphy Moira Maconachie, 1986 The Politics of Culture Christian Jacobs, 2025-11-13 The book analyzes how three political movements used the concept of culture in France between the late 1960s and the early 1980s the women s liberation movement immigrant movements and a far right movement around the group GRECE What did culture mean to the movements and when and why did they use the concept The book discusses intellectual labor beyond well known thinkers in both the practice and the theory of political activists It helps readers understand the high brow debates around the culture wars and the cultural turn as part of a larger societal trend that surpasses the academic field. It offers historical explanations beyond academia because of its focus on primary sources from quotidian political struggles. Two contexts shaped concepts of culture in society more broadly. First decolonization as an intellectual and political development redefined political key concepts such as culture. Second change through culture replaced earlier visions in which the state was seen as the central instrument for political change. Methodologically the book treats political movements as production sites of concepts thereby connecting intellectual history with political and social history.

French Feminism Reader Kelly Oliver, 2000-05-10 French Feminism Reader is a collection of essays representing the authors and issues from French theory most influential in the American context. The book is designed for use in courses and it includes illuminating introductions to the work of each author. These introductions include biographical information, influences and intellectual context, major themes in the author's work as a whole and specific introductions to the selections in this volume. The contributors represent the two trends in French theory that have proven most useful to American feminists: social theory and psychoanalytic theory. Both of these trends move away from any traditional discussions of nature toward discussions of socially constructed notions of sex, sexuality and gender roles. While feminists interested in social theory focus on the ways in which social institutions shape these notions, feminists interested in psychoanalytic theory focus on cultural representations of sex, sexuality and gender roles and the ways that they affect the psyche. This collection includes selections by Simone de Beauvoir, Christine Delphy, Colette Guillaumin, Monique Wittig, Michele Le Doeuff, Julia Kristeva, Luce Irigaray and Helene Cixous.

The Undercut Reader Nina Danino, Michael Mazière, 2003 A collection of writings and visual works from the UK magazine Undercut together with newly commissioned articles by leading critics in the field.

Trouble and Strife, 2000

Harvard Women's Law Journal, 1988

Transformation, 1991

The Bloomsbury Guide to Women's Literature Claire Buck, 1992 Provides biographies, novel synopses, poems, plays and essays by or about women and discusses feminist literature.

Women's Literature Claire Buck, 1994 The first reference guide to the extraordinary riches of women's writing through the ages and throughout the world. Over 5,000 A-Z entries covering individuals, works and movements.

Gendered Work Lisa Adkins, 1995 This text explores the significance of sexual and family relations in structuring employment. Through detailed studies of conditions of work in the British tourist industry it shows how men and women are constituted as different kinds of workers in the labour market.

Berkeley Journal of Sociology, 1982

Materialist Feminism Toril Moi, Janice A. Radway, 1994 Materialist feminism is not an unproblematic term. Its relationship to what was called socialist feminism in the 1970s and early 1980s is far from clear. This special issue of SAQ does not resolve these questions. Instead of providing a theory of materialist feminism in the abstract, the authors have tried to build up a provisional, tentative picture of what a materialist feminism might look like in the 1990s.
