Christine De Pizan A Bibliographical Guide Supplement 1:

Christine de Pizan Angus J. Kennedy, 2004 Christine de Pizan Angus J. Kennedy, 2004 Theorizing the Ideal Sovereign Daisy Delogu, 2008-01-01 Delogu examines how biographical writings on kings contributed to nascent ideas of nationhood exerted pressure upon traditional ideals of kingship and ultimately redefined the theoretical and practical bases of medieval kingship Fifteenth-Century Studies 35 Matthew Z. Heintzelman, Barbara I. Gusick, Martin Walsh, 2010-03 Annual volume of essays treating topics ranging from physical impairment to narrative afterlife and time The fifteenth century defies consensus on fundamental issues most scholars agree however that the period outgrew the Middle Ages that it was a time of transition and a passage to modern times Fifteenth Century Studies treats diverse aspects of the period including liberal and fine arts historiography medicine and religion Volume 35 addresses topics including physical impairments as depicted in surgical handbooks printed in Germany and as reflected through eyeglasses for the blind a therapy proposed by French vernacular poets literary constructions of women in de Meun's Cité des Dames and in hagiographic legends of Spain the evolution of the Order of the Garter as dramatized in Shakespeare serious elements in French farces the festival context of Villon's Petit d'able Boethius in the late Middle Ages A Revelation of Purgatory and Chaucer's Prioress Piers Plowman in one British Library manuscript and narrative afterlife and time in Henryson's Testament of Cresseid Book reviews conclude the volume Contributors Milagros Alameda Irizarry Chiara Benati Edelgarde DuBruck Rosanne Gasse Chelsea Honeyman Noel Harold Kaylor Jr James N Ortego II E L Risden Julie Singer Geri L Smith Martin W Walsh Matthew Z Heintzelman is Curator of the Austria Germany Study Center and Rare Book Cataloger at Hill Museum Barbara I Gusick is Professor Emerita of English at Troy University Dothan Martin W Walsh is Head of the Drama Program at the University of Michigan's Residential College Patrons, Authors and Workshops Godfried Croenen, Peter F. Ainsworth, 2006 Patrons Authors and Workshops invokes a cross disciplinary approach to the study of late medieval books and book production in Paris from the troubled years of the early fifteenth century onwards It shows the extent to which such activity was able to flourish even against the backdrop of the endemic struggle between Burgundians and Armagnacs or the subsequent English invasion which led to Agincourt and the regency of Bedford Extensive coverage is given to the key role played by the libraire to the author as scribe or copyist Christine de Pisan Jean Lebegue and also to the development of commercial production under figures such as Jean Trepperel A section on bibliophiles and their various commissions leads into a group of essays that focus on particular texts and authors whilst a further section concentrates on what we can discover about the role of the scribe The volume concludes with four essays offering insights into the work of particular artists and illuminators The authors include scholars from the UK France Greece Germany Italy Belgium the Netherlands and the USA Godfried Croenen is Lecturer in French at the University of Liverpool Peter Ainsworth is Professor of French at the University of Sheffield Allegorical Bodies Daisy Delogu, Rethinking Democratic Accountability Robert D. Behn, 2001

Traditionally American government has created detailed formal procedures to ensure that its agencies and employees are accountable for finances and fairness. Now in the interest of improved performance we are asking our front line workers to be more responsive, we are urging our middle managers to be innovative and we are exhorting our public executives to be entrepreneurial. Yet what is the theory of democratic accountability that empowers public employees to exercise such discretion while still ensuring that we remain a government of laws? How can government be responsive to the needs of individual citizens and still remain accountable to the entire polity? In Rethinking Democratic Accountability Robert D. Behn examines the ambiguities, contradictions, and inadequacies in our current systems of accountability for finances, fairness, and performance. Weaving wry observations with political theory, Behn suggests a new model of accountability with compacts of collective mutual responsibility to address new paradigms for public management. Christine de Pizan's Changing

Opinion Douglas Kelly, 2007. Christine de Pizan's Changing Opinion examines the evolution of Christine's thought on true and false opinion. She reflected deeply on the subject of opinion while analyzing, evaluating, challenging, and changing her own and others' opinions in her lifelong quest for certain truth. Parsing opinion in Christine's writings gives us insight into her thought on controversial issues while highlighting opinions that were and indeed often still are subjective and controversial. Especially compelling are those instances in which she changed or modified an opinion. The first two chapters treat her definition and description of opinion, including her conception of the thinking mind and the arts by which that mind expresses thought; they also follow her changing opinion about the nature and power of fortune in the world she knew. The next three chapters treat three specific changes in her opinions on misogyny, chivalric or courtly love, and self-interest and enlightened self-interest in society. The last chapter relates Christine's views on opinion to recent work on subjectivity in medieval writing. DOUGLAS KELLY is Professor Emeritus at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. The Book of the Mutability of Fortune

Christine (de Pisan), 2017-03. Christine de Pizan, ca. 1364–ca. 1431, has long been recognized as France's first professional woman of letters, and interest in her voluminous and wide-ranging corpus has been steadily rising for decades. During the tumultuous later years of the Hundred Years War, Christine's lone but strong feminine voice could be heard defending women, expounding the highest ideals for good governance, and lamenting France's troubled times alongside her own personal trials. In The Mutability of Fortune, Christine fuses world history with autobiography to demonstrate mankind's subjugation to the ceaselessly changing and often cruel whims of Fortune. Now for the first time, this poem is accessible to an English-speaking audience, further expanding our appreciation of this ground-breaking woman author and her extraordinary body of work.

The Medieval French Pastourelle Tradition Geri L. Smith, 2009. One of the most popular genres created and performed by Medieval troubadours and trouveres was the pastourelle. In this work, Geri Smith examines the genre in the hands of three Medieval masters: Adam de la Halle, Jean Froissart, and Christine de Pizan. Bulletin of Bibliography, 1999

Literature Criticism from 1400 to 1800, 1984 Studies in Medieval and Renaissance Teaching, 2006 The British
