Christian Attitudes And Racial Problems:

Christian Attitudes and Racial Problems Fred P. Miller, 1993-04 Documented history of the extermination of Palestinian Canaanite Anatolian Hittite civilizations which is shown to be the completion of Noah's biblical Curse of Canaan. This main theme of the book refutes the doctrine widely held among some Christians that the misnamed Curse of Ham refers to those of Black African descent. Even some black ministers of religion adopt this false conclusion thereby continuing a source of prejudice. There is also an extensive discussion of the origin of the races with particular attention given to Hamitic families. Ethical social themes are also dealt with from a biblical standpoint i.e. mixed racial adoptions, interracial marriage. Every White Christian needs to read this book. Publication is subsidized by black churches in NYC, Des Moines, Hartford, South Bend. Christianity and the Race Problem Joseph Houldsworth Oldham, 1925 Racial Relations and the Christian Ideal Sophia Lyon Fahs, 1923 Christianizing Race Relations as a Negro Sees it Alexander Preston Shaw, 1928

The Racial Problem in Christian Perspective Kyle Haselden, 1964 All According to God's Plan Alan Scot Willis, 2014-07-11 Southern Baptists had long considered themselves a missionary people but when after World War II they embarked on a dramatic expansion of missionary efforts they confronted headlong the problem of racism. Believing that racism hindered their evangelical efforts, the Convention's full-time missionaries and mission board leaders attacked racism as unchristian, thus finding themselves at odds with the pervasive racist and segregationist ideologies that dominated the South. This progressive view of race stressed the biblical unity of humanity encompassing all races and transcending specific ethnic divisions. In All According to God's Plan Alan Scot Willis explores these beliefs and the chasm they created within the Convention. He shows how in the post World War II era the most respected members of the Southern Baptists Convention publicly challenged the most dearly held ideologies of the white South. Christianity and the Race Problem Joseph Houldsworth Oldham, 1926 Moderate Racial Thought and Attitudes of Southern Baptists and Methodists, 1900-1921 Henry Young Warnock, 1963 Racial Reconciliation Dr. Calvin Glass, 2023-04-25 Racism within the Christian community in America has resulted in social unrest and has plagued the Christian church in a way that mandates urgent solutions. Dr. Calvin Glass, the senior pastor of Lord of Lords Ministries and the president of Ministers United, shares a practicable methodology based on biblical principles to promote racial reconciliation. Having interviewed and taught focus groups representing a Black Christian congregation, a non-Black Christian congregation, and a group of local diverse senior pastors and ministers in the metro Detroit area, he shares a plethora of wisdom that Christians can put to work in their own houses of worship. The objective of the research was to describe the reality of historical racism in the Christian community and to motivate and implement multicultural change that will enhance the building of theologically healthy and loving relationships among all races. With the Christian church struggling to find its footing in modern times, attaining true racial unity and harmony lingers as a thorn in the flesh. Discover biblical truths that will promote racial reconciliation with the wisdom and
