Orthodoxy and Enlightenment Jeffrey M. Suderman, 2001-10-16 George Campbell The Christian Century ,1928 1719 1796 has long been regarded as a seminal figure in the development of modern theories of persuasion but modern students of rhetoric seldom look beyond his Philosophy of Rhetoric to his equally important religious writings Campbell is portrayed as a secular figure and his contributions to eighteenth century Christian apology have been largely forgotten In his own time however Campbell had an international reputation as a champion of the Gospel miracles against the sceptical assaults of the philosopher David Hume and as a respected biblical scholar and authority on Church history Orthodoxy and Enlightenment is the first study to deal with the entire range of Campbell's interests and publications Suderman sets Campbell firmly in his eighteenth century context reconstructing his life and times from contemporary and manuscript sources He argues that while Campbell's wide ranging scholarly and scientific interests made him as much a man of the Enlightenment as his better known contemporaries Voltaire and Hume he used the critical tools of the Enlightenment to defend a sincere and orthodox Christian faith The detailed reconstruction of Campbell's apologetic system will be of interest to students of history philosophy literary criticism rhetoric and religious thought as well as to general readers interested in The Integration of Psychology and Theology John D. Carter, S. Bruce Narramore, 2018-07-31 The the eighteenth century Rosemead Psychology Series is a continuing series of studies written for professionals and students in the fields of psychology and theology and in related areas such as pastoral counseling It seeks to present current thinking on the subject of the integration of psychology that grow out of the interface of psychology and theology. language In this rich and creative volume the importance of linguistic issues for biblical interpretation is analyzed the challenge of postmodernism is explored and some of the most creative recent developments in philosophy and theology of language are assessed and updated for biblical interpretation CONTRIBULTORS INCLUDE Mary Hesse Ray Van Leeuwen Anthony Thiselton Kevin Vanhoozer Nicholas Wolterstorff The Christian Scholar ,1957 The Problem of Perception and the Experience of God Sameer Yadav,2015-06-01 Sameer Yadav s central claim in this work is that there is a radical mistake in many contemporary accounts that require grounding a theological story of God s availability to us in experience in a prior general philosophical theory of perception Instead it is argued that the philosophical problem of perception is a pseudoproblem The study concludes with a new reading of Gregory of Nyssa and his theology of the spiritual senses which is free from the bewitchment of the problem of perception
