Christian Approaches to Learning Theory: Freedom and discipline Norman De Jong, 1984 Christian Approaches to Learning Theory Norman De Jong, 1986-02-01 Religious Schools in America (1986) Thomas C. Hunt, James Carper, Charles R. Kniker, 2018-06-15
Published in 1986 this selected bibliography considers private schools that are religiously affiliated. Divided into several sections the book opens with chapters covering the most influential general books on religion and schooling and offers summaries and analysis of court decisions and commentaries on the issues of government aid and regulation. The book goes on to provide entries of the schools operating in the United States by seventeen religious groups; entries are annotated by experts from the field. The final section of the book considers statements on religious schools made by both public school educators and religious school advocates, formal and informal interactions between the public and religious schools, and the concept of the education of the public by religious and public schools. This work pulls together a wealth of reference material mainly on religious schools and provides a much needed resource for those interested in religious schooling, whether researcher, scholar, student, or policy maker. Christian Approaches to Learning Theory: The nature of the learner Norman De Jong, 1984 A Critical Examination of the Doctrine of Revelation in Evangelical Theology Carisa A. Ash, 2015-07-14
How God reveals himself is an important matter for Christians, especially evangelicals. For too long Carisa Ash contends evangelicals have rightly affirmed that God reveals through the created world but then they functionally neglect such revelation. In this monograph Ash offers a corrective to this practice by presenting a theology of revelation that explores the commonalities between various forms of revelation: world, written and spoken word, and Incarnate Word. Particularly aimed at theologians interested in theological method, Ash's study will also benefit people interested in faith and learning or interdisciplinary integration. Ash argues that evangelicals must strive to align more closely their affirmations and their practice. Her critique of current practices in theological method and integration, along with the proposed theology of revelation, are designed to help move the conversation forward. Information, Computer and Application Engineering Hsiang-Chuan Liu, Wen-Pei Sung, Wenli Yao, 2015-07-02
