Michael Forster, 1995-01-01 Cracking Assemblies 2 Margaret Cooling, Brian Ogden, Diane Walker, 2000-01-01 Assemblies that Count Margaret Cooling, Catherine O'Connell, 2000-01-01 More Assemblies for Primary Schools Margaret Cooling, 2008 This publication has all new material but is in a similar formula to original series It contains 70 assemblies on seasonal themes as well as topics relevant to today's children e.g. Stories of Christians who have helped to improve the lives of children in need religious stories behind everyday items in shops e.g. chocolate Cadbury Fry's Rowntree Fairtrade Each assembly consists of the following sections You will need Introduction Core material Reflection Prayer and Useful websites/resources where appropriate There is a general introduction and a thematic index to assist assembly planning An appendix includes photocopiable line drawings which can also be downloaded from the RMEP website

Faith, Culture and the Dual System Bernadette O'Keeffe, 2017-11-01 Originally published in 1986 this book is based on research carried out in 102 County secondary and Church of England secondary and primary schools in London the North West Region and the West Midlands It analyses data collected from interviews with 102 headteachers 67 religious education teachers and 139 parents whose children were attending Church schools The book is divided into four main areas First it examines pupil admission policies illustrating their effect both with the schools and on the neighbourhood Second it outlines the policies and practices adopted by Church school governors in appointing teaching staff and discusses the implications of these policies The third area deals with school worship assemblies and religious education and their place in the life of the school The study highlights important issues and challenges facing schools especially where there is considerable religious diversity among pupils It discusses some of the difficulties of implementing the law relating to the daily act of worship and why some schools observe the law while others disregard it Key issues are explored which are central to the teaching of religious education How RE teachers respond to religious diversity why Christianity may or may not be given a central place in RE classes what parents and RE teachers hope RE classes will achieve for pupils by the time they leave school The fourth area focusses on multicultural education and illustrates the divergent views of headteachers on the aims purposes and relevance on multicultural education

Assembly Chains Diane Walker, 2000 This text includes 70 assemblies to help meet the challenge of providing a daily opportunity for worship in school with professionalism and integrity The assemblies are grouped in themes with each assembly working as an independent unit

Nonreligion in Late Modern Societies Anne-Laure Zwingli, Helge Årsheim, 2022-06-14 This volume presents results from new and ongoing research efforts into the role of nonreligion in education politics law and society from a variety of different countries Featuring data from a wide range of quantitative and qualitative studies the book exposes the relational dynamics of religion and nonreligion Firstly it highlights the extent to which nonreligion is defined and understood by legal and institutional actors on the basis of religions and often replicates the organisation of society and majority religions At the same time it displays how essential it is to approach nonreligion on its own by freeing oneself from the frameworks from which religion is thought The book addresses pressing questions such as How can nonreligion be defined and how can the nones be grasped and taken into account in studies on religion How does the sociocultural and religious backdrop of different countries affect the regulation and representation of nonreligion in law and policymaking Where and how do nonreligious individuals and collectives fit into institutions in contemporary societies How does nonreligion affect notions of citizenship and national belonging Despite growing scholarly interest in the increasing number of people without religion the role of nonreligion in legal and institutional settings is still largely unexplored This volume helps fill the gap and will be of interest to students researchers policymakers and others seeking deeper understanding of the changing role of nonreligion in modern societies

The Right of the Child to Religious Freedom in International Law Sylvie Langlaude,2007-11-30 The child's right to religious freedom in international law has never been considered in a comprehensive fashion yet key issues include the prevention of indoctrination religious clothing the relationship of the child with parents and religious communities and the duties of the state to the child Building on a sociological analysis of religious children a body of international legal materials is analysed against a theoretical model of what the child's right ought to be This book is the first attempt at analysing what international law says on the question the result is a compelling analysis of the definitive position of international law on the child's right to religious freedom

Teaching in Multiracial Schools David Hill,2017-07-20 Originally published in 1976 This book helps beginning and practising teachers to operate effectively in multiracial schools its emphasis is on practical guidance for the classroom It presents a review of the salient features of teaching in multiracial schools comprising a brief description of the three largest ethnic minority groups a selected list of studies related to the assessment of ability and achievement language difficulties specifically for West Indian Asian and Chinese pupils and for second stage immigrant learners

Asian Children at Home and at School Ghazala Bhatti,2002-01-04 This book is an ethnographic study of a comprehensive school in the south of England It explores the views of teachers Asian parents and their children concerning education and schooling Young people between the ages of 13 and 18 were studied at home and at school and their experiences form the main focus of the study The experiences of fifty Pakistani Bangladeshi and Indian families mostly of Muslim faith are studied with a view to discovering what parents expect from their children's school and how the teachers perceive their own role with regard to their students These young people are the first generation of Asians to be educated in Britain Their location in terms of their social class positions gender and ethnicity are inextricably bound together They describe how they see their past and their future This is the first study to take account of boys and girls in order to capture the complexity of their lived experiences

Multi-faith Activity Assemblies Elizabeth Peirce,2003 Packed full of ideas for multi faith assemblies including stories songs drama activities and background information on six major world religions this book makes an essential addition to the staffroom bookshelf

Research in Religious Education Leslie J. Francis,William K. Kay,William S. Campbell,1996

Teaching 3-8 Mark O'Hara,2000 Providing comprehensive coverage of the issues involved in the new government chapters on 3-8 teaching this is a textbook for initial teacher training and for newly qualified teachers
