Christian Decision in the Nuclear Age Theodore Richard Milford, 1964      The Valley of Decision Theodore Richard Milford, 1961      Making Christian Decisions George M. Newlands, 2008-07-17

The life of faith in God constantly involves thinking for others acting in concern for other people Reflection upon such action involves Christian ethics As individuals we are concerned with personal ethics in our relationships with other individuals As persons in society and members of the Christian community we are concerned with social ethics with relationships in society as a whole and in Christian responsibility towards all human beings The purpose of this thought provoking book is to provide an account of the implications of God's love for our response to a number of highly particular and urgent ethical issues in the modern world In it George Newlands examines the major issues of the Church and the social order peace and war in a nuclear age personal relationships sex and moral values legal and medical ethical issues respect for life and respect for persons and the meaning of justice within the conflicting interests of society What Dr Newlands offers are not authoritative pronouncements on these issues but considered suggestions and he shows how no area of life is excluded from the reality and the opportunity of making Christian decisions

Modern Just War Theory Michael P. Farrell, 2013-06-20 Contributions to Illuminations A Scarecrow Press Series of Guides to Research in Religion provide students and scholars lay readers and clergy with a road map to research in key areas of religious study All commonly constructed with introductions to the topic and reviews of key thinkers concepts and events each volume includes surveys of the primary and secondary sources with critical evaluations of their places in the canon of thought and research on the topic Focusing primarily on the knowledge required by today's students and scholars each guide is a must have for any student of religion The twentieth century saw an explosion of wars and an accompanying explosion of literature on the morality of war Thinking among Christian clerics and scholars on the idea of just war shifted with developments on the battlefield Alternatives to just war theory such as pacifism and realism found new proponents in the published work of the neo Anabaptists and Niebhurians Meanwhile proponents of Christian just war theory had to address challenges from competing ideologies as well as those presented by the changing nature of warfare Modern Just War Theory A Guide to Research by scholar and librarian Michael Farrell serves as a manual for students and scholars studying Christian just war theory helping them navigate the wealth of just war literature produced in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Farrell's guide provides an introduction to the major developments of just war theory in the twentieth century including sections on how to research just war theory an overview of some of the most important theorists and developments of the twentieth century and discussions of key search terms and related topics Farrell then surveys and evaluates key primary and secondary sources for researchers on just war theory as well as related sources on Christian realism and the responses of just war theorists to proponents of pacifism and secular just war theories Modern Just War Theory will appeal to students and scholars of theology military history international law and Christian ethics      The
