Christian Jewish Dialogue Theological Foundations:

Christian-Jewish Dialogue Peter von der Osten-Sacken,1986      Jews and the Christian Imagination S.

Haynes,1995-03-22 Reluctant Witnesses Jews and the Christian Imagination is an analysis of the ancient Christian myth that casts Jews as a witness people and this myth's presence in contemporary religious discourse. It treats diverse products of the Christian imagination including systematic theology works of fiction and popular writings on biblical prophecy. The book demonstrates that the witness people myth which was first articulated by Augustine and which determined official attitudes towards Jews in medieval Christendom remains a powerful force in the Christian imagination.      That We May Be

Mutually Encouraged Kathy Ehrensperger,2004-04-15 There has been a revolutionary shift of thinking in Pauline Studies fundamentally changing the image of Paul. Postmodern literary criticism of Paul's epistles and sociorhetorical criticism of his letters has created a New Perspective approach to Pauline studies. At the same time feminist criticism of the Pauline corpus has been growing. Unfortunately there has been hardly any interaction and exchange of research results between these different strands of scholarship. The result of this is that in Pauline studies scholars are hardly aware of feminist perspectives. Similarly feminist interpretations of Paul not fully conversant with the most recent strands of Pauline research are often based on traditional images of Paul. Ehrensperger's analysis of feminist commentaries on Paul thus contains a rather negative depiction of theological thinking. However both strands of research feminist and those of the New Perspective provide fresh and illuminating insights that emphasize similar aspects from different perspectives. Ehrensperger advocates a closer interaction between these two schools of Pauline studies. She analyzes Romans 14-15 exploring the results of recent research in both Pauline schools. Pauline studies from the New Perspective emphasize the Jewish context and texture of Paul's thinking. She sets these in dialogue with feminist theology which focuses on issues of identity diversity and relationality. Her study results in a perspective on Paul which views him as a significant dialogue partner in the search for a theology beyond anti-Semitism and misogyny beyond force and domination. Kathy Ehrensperger studied theology at the Universities of Basel and Berne and was a pastor for sixteen years in Switzerland. She is currently a Lecturer in New Testament Studies at the University of Wales Lampeter.      Historical Dictionary of Judaism Norman Solomon,2024-10-15 What we now call

Judaism is the religion of the rabbis it is rooted in scripture the Hebrew Scriptures but it is not to be identified with Old Testament theology. Judaism in its many manifestations has continued to evolve rereading its ancient texts and extracting new meaning while addressing contemporary issues such as the status of women and attitudes to sexual orientation. History or rather our perception of it has changed substantially. Previously unknown documents and artefacts have surfaced while scholars have proposed far reaching changes to the way we read and evaluate ancient texts. Nowadays we have a more nuanced understanding of how to evaluate statements in the Talmud and other rabbinic writings and we are better able to contextualize them not only in Greco-Roman antiquity but also in the Sasanian environment in which the Babylonian Talmud was formed Historical Dictionary of Judaism Fourth Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 800 cross referenced entries on on important personalities in Jewish religious history including biblical personalities with an emphasis on how they are understood in Jewish Christian and Islamic tradition This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Judaism

Jews and Christians in Dialogue John Koenig,1979      Hebrew in the Church Pinchas E. Lapide,1984-12 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable This book represents the only comprehensive attempt made thus far to survey all the efforts among Christians and Jews from New Testament times onward to translate the New Testament and the Christian liturgy into Hebrew Whether the translators were intended to convert the Jews or to equip them with information necessary for the discussion of religion with Christians they served to promote conversation and overcome divisions The author s intimate knowledge of not only Biblical but also Michnaic and Modern Hebrew has enabled him to appreciate the various efforts at translation with acute sensitivity Thus the book is virtually a catalog of successes and failures in mutual understanding More than the mere data of history Hebrew in the Church is a penetrating contribution to the entire history of Jewish Christian relations It sheds fresh light on history itself and it suggests important implications for anyone concerned with the exegesis of the New Testament This unprecedented volume should receive the serious attention not only of specialists but of all who work for a new understanding between Christians and Jews      Dictionary of Mission Karl Muller,Theo Sundermeier,Stephen B. Bevans,Richard H. Bliese,2006-01-30 Conceived and developed by two of Europe s most eminent missiologists in the country where the scientific and sustained study of mission first took shape the Dictionary of Mission represents the finest of the chorus of voices that comprise contemporary missiology The choice of topics and the authors to address them reflects what Christian mission has become a genuinely worldwide and ecumenical phenomenon That there would be entries on regional theological developments is indicative of how the world church is developing A host of other topics here explored show too how the landscape of mission is changing Taken as a whole then the Dictionary of Mission is a road map through this exciting and challenging terrain from the Foreword      Paul and Judaism Reimund Bieringer,Didier Pollefeyt,2012-03-08 This volume presents contributions from leading European scholars considering Paul and his Jewish context and considering the implications for contemporary Jewish Christian dialogue      One of a Kind Adam Sparks,2010-01-01 A fundamental requirement in an inclusivist understanding of the relationship between Christianity and other religions is evidence of God s salvific activity outside any knowledge of Christ This is commonly identified in the religion of Old Testament Israel On this basis an analogy the Israel analogy is drawn between the religion of the old covenant and contemporary non Christian religions Closely related is the parallel argument that as Christ has fulfilled the Old covenant he can also be seen as the fulfillment of other religious traditions and their scriptures This study outlines the use of the Israel analogy and the fulfillment model subjecting these concepts to a biblical and theological critique revealing that the exegetical and patristic data are misconstrued in support of these concepts Furthermore the Israel analogy and the fulfillment model undermine the sui generis relationship between the old and new covenants and fail to respect the organic progressive nature of salvation history They also misconstrue the old covenant and the nature of its fulfillment in the new covenant The Israel analogy and fulfillment model rely on a correspondence between the chronologically premessianic Israel and the epistemologically premessianic other religions and therefore consider the BC condition to continue today In so doing they undermine the significance of the Christ event by failing to appreciate the decisive effect of this event on history and the nature of existence It marks a radical turn in salvation history a crisis point rendering the BC period complete and fulfilled Therefore the concept of a continuing premessianic condition or state is seriously flawed as are the Israel analogy and fulfillment model Thus the inclusivist paradigm reliant in large part on these defective concepts is also problematic and proponents of this paradigm need to reconsider its basis

The Partings of the Ways James D. G. Dunn, 2006 A unique study of the development of Christianity's divergence from Judaism that is most relevant to today's students of multi faith societies

Humanity at the Limit Michael Alan Signer, 2000 Five decades after the end of World War II issues relating to the history and meaning of the Holocaust far from fading from social consciousness have if anything intensified New generations probe the past and its implications for understanding human behavior As fresh information about the particularities of the Holocaust comes to light we know more and more about how these events happened but the deeper question of why remains unanswered In this compelling volume Jewish and Christian thinkers from Israel Germany and Eastern Europe as well as the United States and Canada among them scholars from the fields of history theology ethics genetics the arts and literature confront the legacy of the Holocaust and its continuing impact from the perspectives of their disciplines The issue of religion is central as the Vatican's 1998 statement We Remember Reflections on the Shoah prompts Jewish and Christian contributors to address issues of responsibility evil and justice within their concrete historical and social settings The essays in this important interfaith international and interdisciplinary volume will leave readers pondering the unavoidable question what in view of the crimes of the Holocaust is the nature of human nature Amazon.com

The Encyclopedia of Christianity Erwin Fahlbusch, Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1999 The Encyclopedia of Christianity is the first of a five volume English translation of the third revised edition of Evangelisches Kirchenlexikon Its German articles have been tailored to suit an English readership and articles of special interest to English readers have been added The encyclopedia describes Christianity through its 2000 year history within a global context taking into account other religions and philosophies A special feature is the statistical information dispersed throughout the articles on the continents and over 170 countries Social and cultural coverage is given to such issues as racism genocide and armaments while historical content shows the development of biblical and apostolic traditions This comprehensive work while scholarly is intended for a wide audience and will set the standard for reference works on Christianity Outstanding reference sources 2000 American

Libraries May 2000 Comp by the Reference Sources Committee RUSA ALA      Jewish-Christian Encounters Over the Centuries Marvin Perry, Frederick M. Schweitzer, 1994 A fascinating fully accessible collection of Christian Jewish dialogic essays originally read at the conference on title jointly sponsored by Manhattan College and Baruch College CUNY and held in March 1989 Among the topics Jesus was a Jew Judaism and early Christianity in light of the Dead Sea Scrolls Paul the Pharisee medieval perceptions of Jews and Judaism the Jews in Reformation theology racial nationalism and the rise of modern antisemitism and the Holocaust and Christian thought No index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Jews, Christians, and the Theology of the Hebrew Scriptures Alice Ogden Bellis, Joel S. Kaminsky, 2000      Pro Ecclesia, 2005      Jewish-Christian Relations Michael Shermis, 1988 A selected listing of material in English on Jewish Christian relations throughout the centuries written or produced from the late 1940s to the present Includes more than 550 books over 60 pamphlets and sections for articles journals congresses media syllabi service groups and organizations and speakers See the subject index under Anti Judaism Anti Semitism and Holocaust      American Journal of Theology & Philosophy, 1988      Four Early Christian Texts on Jews and Judaism in the Second Century C.E. Robert Stewart MacLennan, Robert S. MacLennan, 1988      Early Christian Texts on Jews and Judaism Robert S. MacLennan, 1990 Examines four early Christian anti Jewish writings applying new methods of the historical critical school The four 2nd century texts are by Barnabas Epistle of Barnabas Justin Martyr Dialogue with Trypho Melito of Sardis Paschal Homily and Tertullian Answer to the Jews States that these texts along with the New Testament were theological and not historical works Deplores the fact that they are still used by modern Christians to propagate prejudice or create false impressions about Jews and Judaism

Pursuing the Dream Dan Cohn-Sherbok, Mary C. Grey, 2005 A feminist Roman Catholic theologian and a liberal rabbi exchange letters and emails on the major theological fundamentals of their respective faiths such as God Jesus and the Bible alongside contemporary issues such as war and peace gender ecology family sin and racism Their inspiration was a desire to focus on the ways in which their two faiths provide resources for achieving reconciliation in the contemporary world It soon became clear however that they disagreed about nearly everything except the general principle that each tradition contains invaluable spiritual resources for creating a better world The problem was that both held very different visions of what such a world should be But what the conversation finally reveals is the possibility for mutual sympathy and understanding which in a post Holocaust post 9 11 world is perhaps a good enough basis from which to attempt future dialogue and encounter
