Christian Theism And The Problems Of Philosophy:

Christian Theism and the Problems of Philosophy Michael D. Beaty, 1990 Christian Theism and the Problems of Philosophy begins by presenting Plantinga's essay and the chapters that follow address issues in three traditional areas of interest to philosophers: epistemology, metaphysics, and ethics. Evil, Sin, and Christian Theism Andrew Ter Ern Loke, 2022-03-17 This book offers a compelling examination of the problem of evil and the doctrine of sin. It engages with and advances extant discussions on the topic by drawing together philosophical arguments, theological reflections, scientific evidence, Biblical exegesis, and real life stories. The chapters provide a comprehensive evaluation of objections by anti-theodiscists and atheists and bring recent philosophical work concerning the arguments for Christian theism and advances in science and religion to bear on the discussion. The author defends the Cosmic Conflict Theodicy against philosophical and theological objections and uses it together with the Connection Building Theodicy, Adamic Fall Theodicy, arguments for divine hiddenness, and Afterlife Theodicy to address the vexing problem of horrendous evil. Christian Philosophy and the Problem of God Charles Taliaferro, 2023-07-06 Questions are raised about Christian philosophy and God. Is Christian philosophy truly philosophical? Is it Biblical? Is it capable of addressing God, a profoundly transcendent being? Does appealing to a God's eye point of view make sense? Can Christian philosophy respect religious diversity? While the integrity of Christian philosophy is defended, questions are raised about its relationship to the overall practice of philosophy. Christian philosophers value drawing others to Christian faith. Are Christian apologetics compatible with philosophy? This Element concludes with reflection on when it may be philosophically acceptable to appeal to mystery. The Problem of God in David Hume Anders Kraal, 2024-01-18 David Hume (1711–1776) is one of the foremost critics of attempts to provide rational arguments in support of traditional Christian theism in Western philosophy. In this Element, the authors examine Hume's chief objections to the cosmological argument, the design argument, and the argument from miracles, along with some main responses to these objections. The authors also examine Hume's seminal version of the argument from evil, which is deployed in an effort to show that traditional Christian theism is lacking in coherent meaning. Drawing on recent developments in Hume scholarship, according to which Hume's ultimate philosophical aim was to further an anti-Christian agenda, an attempt is made to situate Hume's writings on God and religion in an unfolding narrative that is impacted throughout by the trenchant religious criticisms of Hume's chief philosophical predecessor, Thomas Hobbes. Most recently, philosophers have begun to explore the axiological question of what value impact, if any, God's existence has or would have on our world. This book brings together four prestigious philosophers Michael Almeida Travis Dumsday Perry Hendricks and Graham Oppy to present different views on the axiological question about God Each contributor expresses a position on axiology which is then met with responses from the remaining contributors This structure makes for genuine discussion and developed exploration of the key issues at stake and shows that the axiological question is more complicated than it first appears Chapters explore a range of relevant issues including the relationship between Judeo Christian theism and non naturalist alternatives such as pantheism polytheism and animism panpsychism Further chapters consider the attitudes and emotions of atheists within the theism conversation and develop and evaluate the best arguments for doxastic pro theism and doxastic anti theism Of interest to those working on philosophy of religion theism and ethics this book presents lively accounts of an important topic in an exciting and collaborative way offered by renowned experts in this area Papers in Honor of Josiah Royce on His Sixtieth Birthday ,1916 God and Philosophy Antony Flew,2010-09-09 In this classic primer to the philosophy of religion Antony Flew subjects a wide range of philosophical arguments for the existence of the Christian God to intense critical scrutiny However the rumour in some circles is that Flew long time advocate of atheistic humanism has become a theist Judge for yourself Christian Advocate ,1907 The Princeton Theological Review ,1903 Christian Theism and Moral Philosophy Michael D. Beaty,Carlton D. Fisher,Mark Nelson,1998 These seminal essays will be of interest to scholars and students of religious ethics but also of interest to those of mainstream moral philosophy who work from a Christian worldview as well as to non Christians with an interest in the relation between Christian theism and moral philosophy

What does Christian Theism teach? Verbatim report of the two nights' discussion between A. J. H. and C. Bradlaugh ... January 9th and 10th, 1872, etc Alexander James HARRISON,1872 The Americana Frederick Converse Beach,George Edwin Rines,1912 The Philosophical Review ,1926 Christianity and the Soul of the University Douglas V.
