Christianity and World Religions James Norman Dalrymple Anderson, Norman Anderson, 1984 How does the Christian faith relate to other faiths Do these other faiths have any place in God s plan of salvation In what sense is Christianity unique These questions have challenged many thinkers in recent years including such writers as John Hick and Hans K ng Norman Anderson examines their writings alongside the biblical evidence and the beliefs of the major non Christian religions

Pluralism Harold G. Coward, 1985 Christianity and World Religions Norman Anderson, Christianity and World Religions Gavin D'Costa, 2009-03-12 An engaging and accessible introduction to Christianity s relationship with other world religions addressing the question of why the reality and vitality of other religions has become a challenge and showing how Christianity is equipped to deal with religious plurality at both the doctrinal and social level Timely and accessible this book tackles the question of why the reality and vitality of other religions has become a challenge for Christianity Makes a decisive contribution to debates about the clash between Islam and the West arguing that the major threat to religious freedoms come from secularism and that Islam and Christianity both have the resources to develop a vibrant and pluralist public square one informed by intellectual rigor and debate Considers the wider issue of how modernity has defined religion and provides a substantial critique of secular ways of controlling religions Shows how Christianity is very well suited to deal with religious plurality at the doctrinal and social level Addresses the core issues and describes the various answers that have been proposed in recent years making it an ideal introduction to the field and one which will stimulate ideas and discussions

Four Views on Salvation in a Pluralistic World Zondervan, 2010-09-21 Religious pluralism is the greatest challenge facing Christianity in today s Western culture The belief that Christ is the only way to God is being challenged and increasingly Christianity is seen as just one among many valid paths to God In Four Views on Salvation in a Pluralistic World four perspectives are presented by their major proponents Normative Pluralism All ethical religions lead to God John Hick Inclusivism Salvation is universally available but is established by and leads to Christ Clark Pinnock Salvation in Christ Agnosticism regarding those who haven t heard the gospel Alister McGrath Salvation in Christ Alone Salvation depends on explicit personal faith in Jesus Christ alone R Douglas Geivett and W Gary Phillips This book allows each contributor to not only present the case for his view but also to critique and respond to the critiques of the other contributors The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Twentieth Century Christian Responses to Religious Pluralism Revd Dr David Pitman, 2014-06-28 Twentieth Century Christian Responses to

Religious Pluralism begins with the recognition that the traditional three fold typology adopted by Christians in responding to other living world religions is no longer adequate and offers a much more sophisticated and developed approach This is accomplished with particular reference to ten key Twentieth Century theologians each of whom had significant influence in the field of inter religious studies both during their lifetime and beyond The author rejects the exclusivism and triumphalism of traditional Christian approaches and argues strongly and persuasively that the future for inter religious relationships lies in what he describes as classical pluralism and in an understanding of the importance of difference for inter faith dialogue Presenting an accessible introduction to the contemporary issues and challenges facing all those engaged in the further development of inter faith relationships dialogue and partnership between the world religions Pitman argues that the future of world peace and prosperity depends on the outcome John Hick's Pluralist Philosophy of World Religions Paul Rhodes Eddy,2018-10-24 This title was first published in 2002 One of the most fascinating and controversial interpretations of religious diversity is religious pluralism According to John Hick s model of religious pluralism all the world s great religions are equally valid ways of understanding and responding to the ultimate spiritual reality This book offers an exposition of and critical response to John Hick s model Introducing the various interpretations of religious diversity being discussed today this book presents constructive suggestions as to how things could be further developed to offer a more accurate less confusing presentation of the various options in theology of religions The standard threefold typology of responses to religious diversity exclusivism inclusivism and pluralism are explained and defended Hick s pluralist interpretation of religious diversity is traced culminating in a critical assessment of Hick s pluralistic model and an up to date summary of a variety of critiques directed toward Hick s proposal Christianity and Religious Diversity Harold A. Netland,2015-05-12 This book explores how religions have changed in a globalized world and how Christianity is unique among them Harold Netland an expert in philosophical aspects of religion and pluralism offers a fresh analysis of religion in today s globalizing world He challenges misunderstandings of the concept of religion itself and shows how particular religious traditions such as Buddhism undergo significant change with modernization and globalization Netland then responds to issues concerning the plausibility of Christian commitments to Jesus Christ and the unique truth of the Christian gospel in light of religious diversity The book concludes with basic principles for living as Christ s disciples in religiously diverse contexts Encountering Religious Pluralism Harold Netland,2001-08-14 Harold Netland traces the emergence of the pluralistic ethos that challenges Christian faith and mission interacting heavily with philosopher John Hick and providing a framework for developing a comprehensive evangelical theology of religions Christians and Religious Pluralism Alan Race,1983 Ninian Smart on World Religions: Traditions and the challenges of modernity. I. Individual traditions. Buddhism. 'Mysticism and scripture in Theravāda Buddhism' Ninian Smart,2009 Ninian Smart came to public prominence as the founding Professor of the first British university Department of Religious Studies in the late 1960s His pioneering views on education in religion proved hugely influential at all levels from primary schools to academic teaching and research. An unending string of publications, many of them accessible to the general public, sustained a reputation that became worldwide. Here for the first time a selection of Ninian Smart's wide-ranging writings is organised systematically under a set of categories which both comprehend and also illuminate his varied output over a career spanning half a century. The editor, John Shepherd, was Principal Lecturer in Religion and Philosophy at the University of Cumbria. He first met Smart as a postgraduate student and recently helped establish the Ninian Smart Archive at the University of Lancaster.

Modern Western Christian Theological Understandings of Muslims Since the Second Vatican Council Mahmut Aydin, 2002

Christianity and the Religions Edward Rommen, Harold A. Netland, 1995-09-15

The Majesty and Greatness of God. Unprecedented opportunities and challenges await the Christian church as it approaches the 21st century. Just fifty years ago we could not have dreamed how advanced technologies and the remarkable rise of non-Western missionaries would open doors for world evangelization. At the same time, the church finds itself increasingly troubled by internal and external pressures, resulting in a deep sense of insecurity about its mission in the world. The current theological and missiological ferment is seen in debates about religious pluralism. What is the relationship between the Christian faith and other religious traditions? Missiologist Gerald Anderson says: "No issue in missiology is more important, more difficult, more controversial, or more divisive for the days ahead than the theology of religions." This is the theological issue for mission in the 1990s and into the 21st century. The essays in this book take a fresh look at the biblical data to address pressing questions raised by religious pluralism. With a greater understanding of these issues, God's people will not only have increased confidence in the one true God; they will be further emboldened to carry on the work of world missions.

The Challenges of Vatican II for an Authentic Indian Catholic Church Suhas Pereira, 2021

Vatican II was an event of a new facelift for the entire edifice of the Catholic ecclesiology. It called for the renewal in the universal Catholic Church. This book deals with the question: How can the Catholic Church in India accept the council's challenge for renewal and become truly Indian in its being and essence? Undertaking a systematic examination of the post-conciliar ecclesiological development in the Indian Catholic Church in its existential, multi-religious, and multi-cultural context, the author attempts to develop an ecclesiological reflection for the Indian context.

Christianity and Other Religions John Hick, Brian Hebblethwaite, 2014-10-01

Edited by two of the most prominent names in interfaith dialogue, this is an introduction to the complex relationships between Christianity and the other world faiths. Featuring essays from some of the key thinkers in the Christian faith, it covers both Catholic and Protestant approaches and features all the rival points of view, including the uncompromising absolutism of Karl Barth and Pope John Paul II, the more ecumenical approaches of Karl Rahner and Hans Kung, and the religious pluralism of Wilfred Cantwell Smith and John Hick among others.
