

Christianity and Western Civilization

- Despite the fall of the Roman Empire in the 5th century A.D., Christianity had become the primary religion of Europe
- The Christian (Catholic) Church becomes the most powerful institution of Medieval Europe
- Judeo-Christian beliefs shaped the culture and ethical values of Europeans, who would then transplant those ideas across the world
- To this day, Christianity has over 2 billion followers worldwide

Christianity Civilisation II Specific:

Christianity and the Nations Robert E. Speer, 1910 Humanism and Religion Jens Zimmermann, 2012-01-26 Jens Zimmermann suggests that the West can rearticulate its identity and renew its cultural purpose by recovering the humanistic ethos that originally shaped Western culture He traces the religious roots of humanism and combines humanism religion and hermeneutic philosophy to re imagine humanism for our current cultural and intellectual climate Biblical Faith and Social Ethics Edward Clinton Gardner, 1960 The aim of the present study is to help the interested student come to grips with the basic issues and problems of morality as these appear In the light of Christian faith It is hoped that the student will be led to pursue the issues that are raised here by reference to other interpretations of Christian ethics Finally the reader should perhaps be warned in advance that he will find here no code or set of rules which will tell him what the Christian must do in order to lead the good life Rather he will be pointed to a faith which enables him to act spontaneously and freely where the rules break down or are lacking Introduction p 18 Augustine and the Art of Ruling in the Carolingian Imperial Period Sophia Moesch, 2019-06-26 The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.tandfebooks.com/doi/view/10.4324/9781351116022> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 licence DOI <https://doi.org/10.4324/9781351116022> Published with the support of the Swiss National Science Foundation This volume is an investigation of how Augustine was received in the Carolingian period and the elements of his thought which had an impact on Carolingian ideas of state rulership and ethics It focuses on Alcuin of York and Hincmar of Rheims authors and political advisers to Charlemagne and to Charles the Bald respectively It examines how they used Augustinian political thought and ethics as manifested in the De civitate Dei to give more weight to their advice A comparative approach sheds light on the differences between Charlemagne's reign and that of his grandson It scrutinizes Alcuin's and Hincmar's discussions of empire rulership and the moral conduct of political agents during which both drew on the De civitate Dei although each came away with a different understanding By means of a philological historical approach the book offers a deeper reading and treats the Latin texts as political discourses defined by content and language Christian Missions and Social Progress: Lecture 6, continued : the contribution of Christian missions to social progress James Shepard Dennis, 1906 The Students Lectures on Missions at Princeton Theological Seminary which form the basis of the book now issued were delivered by the author in the spring of 1896 Preface CLEP® Western Civilization II Book + Online Preston Jones, 2013-01-16 Earn College Credit with REA's Test Prep for CLEP Western Civilization II 1648 to the Present Everything you need to pass the exam and get the college credit you deserve REA leads the way in helping students pass their College Board CLEP exams and earn college credit while reducing their tuition costs With 25 years of experience in test prep for the College Level Examination Program CLEP REA is your trusted source for the most up to date test aligned content Whether you're an adult returning to finish your degree a traditional age college student a military service member or a high school or
