Christianity In Action:

Faith Takes Action Rebecca Murzin, 2010-08 So you've accepted Christ and professed that He is your Lord and Savior. Now what? In this inspiring new book Rebecca Murzin shows readers that profession of Jesus Christ as Lord is only the first step in a Christian's journey. There is so much more. To begin to believe in the Lord means to follow him and be obedient to his Word. Many Christians today have fallen away from the Word of God and do not read the Bible for themselves. How can you know God's will if you don't search it out, study it, and meditate upon it? After studying God's Word, it's important to watch what you say; it must align with the Word of God. Religion is in vain if we don't watch what we say. Murzin shows readers they not only must be careful of what they say but they must watch what they do. While we are not saved by works but by faith, it is faith that drives us to do the works Christ has called us to do. We as Christians have to remember we are not supposed to be doing things the way everyone else in the world does it, and Faith Takes Action will show readers how to do things to successfully walk the Christian's path. Faith Takes Action is a well-done challenge for Christians to fulfill their callings and continue in the will of God. Pastor John and Fran Newman, Higher Ground Ministries. Rebecca Murzin lives in Barnstead, New Hampshire, with her husband and three children. Together they're working on building the Fruit of Life Ministries Christian Retreat Center.

Public Faith in Action Miroslav Volf, Ryan McAnnally-Linz, 2017-09-19 Celebrated Theologian Offers Wisdom for Civic Engagement. Christian citizens have a responsibility to make political and ethical judgments in light of their faith and to participate in the public lives of their communities from their local neighborhoods to the national scene. But it can be difficult to discern who to vote for, which policies to support, and how to respond to the social and cultural trends of our time. This nonpartisan handbook offers Christians practical guidance for thinking through complicated public issues and faithfully following Jesus as citizens of their countries. The book focuses on enduring Christian commitments that should guide readers in their judgments and encourages legitimate debate among Christians over how to live out core values. The book also includes lists of resources for further reflection in each chapter and room for debate questions to consider.

Doing Justice, Showing Mercy Vinita Hampton Wright, 2000-03-07 Christians are more aware than ever of problems concerning injustice. How are we to respond? Can one person make a difference? The Bible's teachings are just as valid and radical today as they were centuries ago. They instruct us to live as lights in the darkness and they reveal the true source of our hope for the world.

James Chuck Christensen, Winnie Christensen, 2012-09-12 Put Some Muscle Behind Your Faith. We live in a world characterized by instability in fighting materialism and words without actions. Sadly, no one is immune to these problems. Centuries ago the apostle James could not envision the world we would live in, but he did address the issues we would face. Building a bridge between first-century Christianity and our lives today, James: Faith in Action shows how Christianity can work in a postmodern world and calls you

Leffel,2007-06-01 In Faith Seeking Action author Gregory Leffel links a description of the church as a global movement with a description of contemporary social movements that are actively challenging today s societies such as the environmental global justice and identity movements Not surprisingly Christian communities and communities of social activists share much in common as they each work to enrich their societies It is natural then to ask what missionally concerned Christians may learn from social movements about the public role of their churches the connection of their beliefs to social change and the mobilization of their people It can also be asked how these often divided communities may find ways to collaborate around common actions rooted in such shared values as peace justice life and the integrity of the environment Building on growing interest in the field of missiology and its missional church concept Leffel has created a dialog between the church as a social actor and social movements Along with introducing movement theory to mission studies Leffel introduces a new way of addressing the issues involved in the church s engagement with society a concept he calls missio ecclesiology Of interest to those seeking vital ways to live out their faith in the world missiologists missional church leaders and street level workers alike this work fuels fresh thinking about the church s role in cultural and social change A Call to Action by Christians in the Present Crisis Christian Action,1948 Political Action Charles W.
