Returning home to her family's farm in the Midwest for her Christmas wedding was never Beth Dean's plan. But it's the only way her beloved grandmother will be able to attend. And even her New York City friends will find the family's old barn elegant. But when her fiancé's family want her to sign a pre-nup, her hopes for her future marriage may be crumbling even as the guests arrive. Beth's childhood friend Jen Fitzgerald has always dreamed of starting a wedding planning business. And when Beth decides to have her wedding back home, it's the perfect chance for Jen to show everyone what she can do. But when the caterer cancels and a blizzard comes in through the barn door, Jen wonders if she's bit off more than she can chew and how she's going to get through the wedding while seeing her old flame Jared for the first time in years. Meanwhile, Beth's friend Destiny is trying to put on a brave face while she wonders why she never left home to follow her dreams like Beth. The groom's parents are brought face to face with the tensions in their own marriage as they argue over their son's. And Sylvia, a native New Yorker, is wondering how long she can survive in a town that doesn't even have a Starbucks while unexpected sparks fly with Winston, a gruff local tree surgeon with a heart of gold. But when a surprise snowstorm blankets the area, keeping the guests together on the farm, everyone learns to put aside their differences and enjoy their unexpected Christmas blessings.
