International Collaboration and Best Practices for Aging Populations Peter Crome, Esther-Lee Marcus , Marios Kyriazis, 2025-10-28 Geriatric Medicine has emerged as a crucial field since its inception in the mid twentieth century by Marjory Warren in England This area of healthcare focuses on the unique needs of the aging population which is rapidly increasing worldwide While some countries have developed comprehensive geriatric care systems including specialized medical professionals community services and palliative care others are still grappling with the challenges of providing adequate services for their elderly citizens The disparity in geriatric care across different nations highlights the need for a global exchange of knowledge and strategies Recent studies have shown that countries with well established geriatric care systems can serve as models for those still developing their services However there remains a significant gap in understanding how these successful frameworks can be adapted and implemented in diverse cultural and economic contexts Addressing this gap is essential for ensuring that all aging populations receive the care and support they need This research topic aims to explore and document the diverse structures and developments of geriatric care across different countries By examining the aging demographics availability of specialized healthcare professionals and existing services this research seeks to identify best practices and innovative strategies that can be shared globally The objective is to foster a collaborative environment where countries can learn from each other s experiences ultimately leading to improved geriatric care worldwide Key questions include how countries with less developed systems can enhance their geriatric care and what role international collaboration can play in this process To gather further insights into the global landscape of geriatric care we welcome Original Research Review Mini review Case Report Clinical Trial and Opinion articles addressing but not limited to the following themes The country specific aging structure of the population An overview of professional and academic healthcare providers Structure of healthcare services for the older patient Country specific challenges and future planning and developments Examples of countries with well established geriatric care systems which served as models for countries still developing their services By sharing research and insights we aim to build a comprehensive body of work that significantly advances progress in geriatric care ensuring that all elderly individuals receive the support and services they deserve

Artificial Intelligence Literacy in Higher Education Imre Fekete, 2025-07-08 This book explores the concept of artificial intelligence AI literacy within higher education addressing both instructors and students preparedness to engage with AI technologies responsibly and effectively By synthesising existing frameworks and empirical studies alongside presenting two original research studies the book bridges theoretical foundations with practical applications tailored for modern educational contexts Practical recommendations include methods to develop AI literacy skills focusing on ethical awareness technological competence and the potential for AI to enhance teaching and learning processes Aimed at higher education instructors stakeholders and students the book offers actionable insights and tools for fostering informed and critical engagement with AI aligned with lifelong learning goals and professional development needs The Generativity

Advantage Mohammad Keyhani, 2025-08-04 How can businesses systematically profit from innovations they never predicted created by people they've never met solving problems they didn't even know existed While many businesses celebrate user innovation few take their user innovators seriously enough as entrepreneurs The Generativity Advantage brings powerful ideas from technology generativity theory into the domains of business strategy and entrepreneurship It explores ways to specifically design products to spur user innovation product generativity and to build dynamic markets for those innovations market generativity in order to achieve a strategic generativity advantage the ability to systematically profit from the unpredicted innovations of others on a massive scale Through numerous case studies from Apple and Google to emerging leaders in generative AI and no code technology like OpenAI Anthropic Bubble Notion Coda and Webflow it shows how product generativity and market generativity can together create a powerful flywheel effect and sustained competitive advantage Yet the book also demonstrates that achieving a generativity advantage is neither easy nor trivial the world's leading companies struggle to implement these ideas effectively The book's key lesson is to help your user innovators succeed as serious entrepreneurs and you will benefit generously in turn Whether you're building a digital platform a marketplace or any product that allows users to innovate this book provides the conceptual tools and practical strategies needed to transform your platform into an engine of continuous innovation Learn how to move beyond celebrating user creativity to systematically enabling and profiting from user entrepreneurship creating value at scales previously unimaginable The Power of Crisis Ian Bremmer, 2022-05-17 New York Times Bestseller Renowned political scientist Ian Bremmer draws lessons from global challenges of the past 100 years including the pandemic to show how we can respond to three great crises unfolding over the next decade In this revelatory unnerving and ultimately hopeful book Bremmer details how domestic and international conflicts leave us unprepared for a trio of looming crises global health emergencies transformative climate change and the AI revolution Today Americans cannot reach consensus on any significant political issue and US and Chinese leaders behave as if they're locked in a new Cold War We are squandering opportunities to meet the challenges that will soon confront us all In coming years humanity will face viruses deadlier and more infectious than Covid Intensifying climate change will put tens of millions of refugees in flight and require us to reimagine how we live our daily lives Most dangerous of all new technologies will reshape the geopolitical order disrupting our livelihoods and destabilizing our societies faster than we can grasp and address their implications The good news Some farsighted political leaders business decision makers and individual citizens are already collaborating to tackle all these crises The question that should keep us awake is whether they will work well and quickly enough to limit the fallout and most importantly whether we can use these crises to innovate our way toward a better world Drawing on strategies both time honored and cutting edge from the Marshall Plan to the Green New Deal The Power of Crisis provides a roadmap for surviving even thriving in the 21st century Bremmer shows governments corporations and every concerned citizen how we can use these coming crises to create the worldwide prosperity and opportunity that 20th century globalism promised but failed to deliver Educational Times, 1916 A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles, 1897 A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles James Augustus Henry Murray, Henry Bradley, Sir William Alexander Craigie, Charles Talbot Onions, 1891
