Users Like You and Me Martin D. Mileros,2025-02-28 With over 5 billion social media users users worldwide digital platforms such as YouTube and Facebook have become an integral part of people s daily lives Many of these platforms offer free services such as entertainment and social interaction but behind these services lies a complex economic non monetary exchange A specific user group referred to in this dissertation as zero price users trades personal resources such as time attention and data instead of money to use the free service At the same time another more active user group plays a significant role content creators Content creators and especially influencers have assumed a central role in supplying platforms with original and engaging content What unites these two types of users is that they both participate in a distributed value creation process based on the monetization of personal assets which positions them as economic actors in an emerging user driven data economy Many of the resources that users provide or exchange with other users can be utilized by platforms as economic assets However these resources are not perceived in the same way as traditional economic transactions This lack of insight can lead to a range of future consequences and costs that may negatively impact users and diminish their well being The aim of this dissertation is therefore to explore social media users as active economic actors in the user driven data economy from a human centric perspective The research is based on a combination of qualitative and quantitative methods Surveys are used to study zero price users and their engagement with free services For content creators in depth interviews are conducted as this group represents a significantly smaller population The study stands out by adopting a human centric perspective In other words it contributes knowledge focused on enhancing user well being rather than prioritizing growth and innovation as companies and organizations typically do The results show that platform strategies such as infinite scrolling and targeted advertising can subtly influence user behavior and lead to various non monetary costs These may manifest as procrastination reduced self control and stress For content creators the pressure from algorithms and sponsors often shifts their focus from intrinsic motivation to external performance goals which can hinder their creativity and stability over time Additionally they frequently face financial uncertainty and the need to continuously push their boundaries to produce original content This growing pressure may lead influencers to take significant risks or expose their private lives and families The study's observations highlight how the user driven economy not only affects individuals but also reshape markets culture and behaviors This dissertation deepens the understanding of the user driven data economy and its implications for users by linking them to autonomy core human values and well being It also emphasizes the importance of increased transparency and ethical accountability from companies as well as the need for users to reflect on their values digital behaviors and the consequences of their actions As role models and cultural influencers influencers specifically play a key role in shaping future norms values and societal trends While this research provides a foundation for understanding this phenomenon further studies are needed to identify additional non monetary costs for users and develop tools and strategies that can enhance their ability to make more informed decisions regarding their current and future challenges

Med över fem miljarder användare av sociala medier användare världen över har digitala plattformar plattformar som YouTube och Facebook blivit en naturlig del av människors vardag Många plattformar av detta slag erbjuder exempelvis gratis tjänster som underhållning och social interaktion men bakom dessa tjänster döljer sig ett komplext ekonomiskt ickemonetärt utbyte Till exempel byter en specifik användargrupp som i denna avhandling benämns som nollprisanvändare personliga resurser som tid uppmärksamhet och data i stället för pengar mot användande av plattformar Samtidigt spelar också en annan mer aktiv användargrupp en viktig roll nämligen innehållsskapare Innehållsskapare och förmodligen kallade influencers har fått en central roll i att förse plattformarna med originellt och engagerande innehåll Det som förenar dessa två typer av användare är att de båda deltar i en distribuerad värdeskapandeprocess som baserar sig på monetariseringen av personliga tillgångar vilket i sin tur positionerar dem som ekonomiska aktörer i en framväxande användardriven dataekonomi Många av de resurser som användarna tillhandahåller eller utbyter mellan andra användare kan nyttjas som ekonomiska tillgångar av plattformarna vilket innebär att dessa resurser inte uppfattas på samma sätt som traditionella ekonomiska transaktioner Denna bristande insyn kan leda till en rad framtida konsekvenser och kostnader som negativt påverkar användarna och deras verktygsläbennande Syftet med denna avhandling är därmed att belysa och fördjupa sig i den användardrivna dataekonomin samt att mer specifikt undersöka konsekvenserna för de två centrala huvudanvändarna nollprisanvändare och innehållsskapare Forskningen baserar sig på en kombination av kvalitativa och kvantitativa metoder där enkäter används för att undersöka nollprisanvändare och deras användning av gratis tjänster För innehållsskaparens användare istället djupintervjuer där dessa respondenter förklarar till antalet Studien utmärker sig genom att anta ett människocentriskt perspektiv Med andra ord så bidrar studien med kunskap som kan leda till verktygsläbennande för den enskilde snarare än företagsrelaterade aspekter som kad tillväxt och innovation Resultaten visar att plattformsstrategier som obegränsad scrollning och riktad reklam subtilt kan påverka användares beteenden och leda till en rad icke monetära kostnader exempelvis prokrastinering nedsatt självkontroll och stress För innehållsskapare medför trycket från algoritmer och sponsorer att deras fokus ofta flyttas
