The Help-Yourself City Gordon C.C. Douglas, 2018-01-02 When local governments neglect public services or community priorities how do concerned citizens respond In The Help Yourself City Gordon Douglas looks closely at people who take urban planning into their own hands with homemade signs and benches guerrilla bike lanes and more Douglas explores the frustration creativity and technical expertise behind these interventions but also the position of privilege from which they often come Presenting a needed analysis of this growing trend from vacant lots to city planning offices The Help Yourself City tells a street level story of people s relationships to their urban surroundings and the individualization of democratic responsibility
