Creativity is one of the most sought-after skills in the job market today. With a creativity pandemic and AI threatening to take our jobs, this demand for creative thinking has surged. As artificial intelligence and automation continue to become more prevalent, we are seeing more and more examples of how AI can be used to boost productivity through creative solutions.

Creative thinking isn't just about coming up with innovative ideas; it's also about finding new ways to use old ideas. While some believe that AI will eliminate our need for creativity, it has actually provided us with many new opportunities for creative solutions. Creative thinking and AI go hand in hand because both involve solving problems in new ways. Humans have always been able to see connections between things that an algorithm might not, and vice versa.

Artificial intelligence has begun to have a broad impact on the world of content marketing. AI-driven content creation software has begun to challenge marketers by making it possible for programs to generate their own unique content.

Readers are becoming more discerning, and brands must take steps to ensure their digital content is not transparent or artificial. AI-driven content creation software can be challenging for marketers who rely on creativity and authenticity in their brand's messaging.

Yet AI can also be an ally—not a foe—when it comes to creating content that readers may find authentic, rather than fabricated or phony. Here are some ways you can leverage helpful artificial intelligence tools while avoiding those that could compromise your brand's honesty and integrity.
