   Never Enough Time Brian H. Spitzberg,2025-10-24 Never Enough Time discusses the directional and irreversible nature of time its relationship to information and entropy the deep time history of communication from the genesis of language to today and the extent to which we occupy time through our communication Drawing together studies from a wide variety of disciplines and topics that provide quantitative estimates of how much daily time is expended communicating and relating to others the author demonstrates that in an increasingly accelerating mediated and information overloaded ecosystem we spend most of our time both socially and occupationally engaged in various forms of communication He examines the nature of time in the context of our increasingly overloaded and mediated information and communication ecosystem the extent to which our increasing screen time displaces face to face interaction and the implications this trend has for our quality and quantity of life particularly for younger populations In addition a case is made for the importance of developing standardized measures of time made all the more feasible with digital technologies already available for quantifying behavior at population scales This book will appeal to graduate students scholars and researchers interested in time communication theory new media and media studies and communication and personal relationships   Strategic Business Management in Crisis Times Geetanjali Varrier,2025-01-03 Strategic Business Management in Crisis Times explores the vital role of strategic management in navigating unstable and unpredictable environments such as a pandemic This book addresses the complexities and importance of applying strategic management effectively during volatile situations providing a comprehensive guide from basic principles to detailed applications We delve into the history of strategic management during pandemics examining its impact on businesses and livelihoods The book highlights how poor strategic management can undermine authority and offers insights on leveraging effective strategies even amid crises Through global case studies and live discussions with entrepreneurs readers gain a thorough understanding of strategic management practices in challenging times The book also covers new strategies developed during the COVID 19 pandemic and revisits historical strategies for managing businesses and livelihoods It combines conceptual knowledge with practical tips suggestions and actionable points making it a valuable resource for comprehending and applying strategic management in crises   Empowered or Left Behind DeeDee M. Bennett Gayle,Xiaojun (Jenny) Yuan,2023-07-14 Focused on the United States this book summarizes the secondary impacts of COVID 19 due to the increased use of technology Establishing the global response of social distancing mandates for non essential business and working from home the book centers on the disparate guidance provided domestically at the state and local levels Marginalized populations are highlighted to identify areas where technology facilitated access and reach or contributed to difficulties catapulted by digital literacy or digital access issues To explain how people may have been empowered or left behind due to a new and unique reliance on technology this book is structured based on the social determinants of health domains Specifically this book explains how technology was an umbrella domain that impacted every aspect of life during the pandemic including access use adoption digital literacy and digital equity as well as privacy and security concerns Given this book s focus on the impacts to marginalized populations there is a thread throughout the book related to the use of technology to perpetuate hate discrimination racism and xenophobic behaviors that emerged as a twin pandemic during COVID 19 Part I explains the defining differences between primary and secondary impacts as well as the unique guidelines adopted in each state Part II of the book is focused on specific domains where each chapter is dedicated to topics including economic stability through employment education healthcare and the social community context through access to services Part III focuses on unique technological considerations related to COVID 19 such as mobile health related apps and privacy or security issues that may have posed barriers to the adoption and use of technology Finally the book ends with a conclusion chapter which explicitly explains the advantages and disadvantages of technology adoption during COVID 19 These exposed benefits and challenges will have implications for policies disaster management practices and interdisciplinary research Sabbath as Resilience Kenneth J. Barnes,C. Sara Lawrence Minard,2025-03-28 People everywhere are feeling the stress of modern life in ways not seen for generations Emerging from the fog of the first pandemic in one hundred years they face economic uncertainty political acrimony war and the threat of war environmental degradation and technological advances that amaze and frighten in equal measure Time and space condense as unrelenting connectedness blurs the lines between work and play fact and fiction need and desire The devices meant to improve lives dominate them in what theologian Walter Brueggemann calls the tyranny of now People are looking for accessible solutions to complex problems People need resilience but are ill equipped to find it In this book the Fellows of the Mockler Center at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary offer a solution not from the well trodden psychological disciplines or the lure of New Age mysticism but in a concept as old as the Scriptures themselves the divine gift of Sabbath The authors explore in detail Jesus words Sabbath was made for humanity not humanity for the Sabbath proposing five areas values time space people and faith where a more comprehensive understanding of Sabbath can build resilience by reshaping personal and professional identities in accord with God s will and purpose Artspace ,1990 Literary Digest ,1920 The Literary Digest Edward Jewitt Wheeler,Isaac Kaufman Funk,William Seaver Woods,Arthur Stimson Draper,Wilfred John Funk,1920 Digital America Consumer Electronics Association,2000 Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler,Isaac Kaufman Funk,William Seaver Woods,1920 Digest; Review of Reviews Incorporating Literary Digest ,1920 Five Paths of Student Engagement Dennis Shirley,Andy Hargreaves,2021-06-11 This is a breakthrough book on
