That is where most businesses have been shifting their advertising dollars to for decades. Of course traditional media still has its place but the total amount of digital marketing investment increases every year. Digital marketing is also said to be one of the most lucrative professions a person can choose to pursue without a degree or certification. While I do have a degree along with 20 years of experience in digital marketing and I have worked on projects for some of the largest corporations in the world, I have learned that it is possible to own and operate a legitimate digital marketing business from home with limited knowledge and financial resources. Believe it or not, I have actually lost opportunities for new business to such individuals. Rarely but it has happened. Often the clients of these individuals ended up moving on and they have gone out of business. That is because they did not have a plan for follow through. YOU WILL. I am not only going to help you train your mind for success, help you understand the digital landscape and tell you how to start your own digital marketing business. I am going to share a plan for follow through and success with you throughout this book. Beyond that, all it will take is commitment, a relatively small amount of money, the guidance in this book, and the willingness to learn some simple concepts. It is my hope that by sharing the many trade secrets I have acquired throughout my twenty years of experience, you will find the freedom and success that I have experienced from operating my own digital marketing business while avoiding all of the bumps and bruises I have endured along the way.
