Global Education of Health Management

William Edson Aaronson, Connie J. Evashwick, 2019-06-12 The purpose of this special issue is to provide insights about how healthcare executives and managers are educated around the world As globalization becomes the standard for all industries healthcare executives must be able to manage effectively with populations financial arrangements and technologies that cross geographic boundaries Education of upcoming students and continuing education of working executives must be broad and encompass a global perspective Students are increasingly eager to study abroad our educational programs must include opportunities for students to study in other countries and to have the information in advance that is necessary to make the experience meaningful Throughout the world health systems are grappling with the need to deliver high value healthcare and high quality services despite rapidly increasing costs The need for effective management to achieve these ends is well documented However healthcare management education is nascent or non existent in many countries especially low and middle income countries that could benefit most from educating healthcare managers in the art and science of management and leadership This special issue strives to provide insights that might guide universities in developing healthcare management programs in their respective countries
