Colonial Harem:

The Colonial Harem Malek Alloula, 1986 A collection of picture postcards of Algerian women exploited by the French this album illustrates a powerful analysis of the distorting denigrating effects of their presence on Algerian Society The Colonial Harem Malek Alloula, 1986 Orientalism's Interlocutors Jill Beaulieu, Mary Roberts, 2002-12-06 A collection of essays that develop ways of doing postcolonial studies in art history Women in the Middle East Haleh Afshar, 2016-01-21 This book offers both theoretical perspectives and detailed examples which provide the analytical frameworks chosen by the Middle Eastern women themselves to explain the strategies they have chosen for liberation The studies deal with Islam and its impact on personal and public lives of women in the region as well as their political struggles for liberation both internally and internationally Picturing the Maghreb Mary B. Vogl, 2003 Picturing the Maghreb critiques photographic and verbal representations with a focus on four of the most prominent French language writers of recent years Michel Tournier J M G Le Clézio Tahar Ben Jelloun and Leïla Sebbar Their activist writing reframes a picture of Maghreb produced by two centuries of Orientalist misrepresentation The book explores photography as a metaphor for other sorts of representation and examines the cultural impact of actual photographs Atlantic Cross-currents Susan Z. Andrade, 2001 Taken from a poem by Niyi Osundare Atlantic Cross Currents Transatlantiques was the theme of the 1993 meeting of the African Literature Association held in Guadeloupe suggesting the movement of people languages cultures and ideas The papers included in this volume are divided into three clusters the first focusing on forms of linguistic communication and literary genres the second on the construction of gender memory history and revolt against patriarchy and the third on political change and nation building After Orientalism Inge E. Boer, 2003 How does Edward Said's Orientalism speak to us today What relevance did and does it have politically and intellectually How and in what modes does Orientalism engage with new intersecting fields of inquiry At the occasion of the twenty fifth anniversary of Orientalism these questions shape the essays collected in the present volume The after of the title does not only guide the contributions in a look on past discussions but specifically points at future research as well Orientalism's critical entanglements are thus connected to productive looks these productive looks make us read differently but only after we recognize our struggle with the dominant notions that we live by that divide and unite us More specifically this volume addresses three fields of research enabling productive looks visual culture the body sexuality and the performative and national identities modernity and gender All articles weaving delicate new analytical and theoretical textures maintain vital links with at least two of the fields mentioned Orientalism's role as a cultural catalyst is gauged in the analysis of materials such as Iranian film 16th and 17th century Venetian representations of the Turk Barthes take on Japanese culture modern Arab travel narratives Palestinian popular culture photography on and of the Maghreb Japanese queer and gay culture the 19th century Illustrated London News theories on migration and exile postcolonial cinema and Hanan al Shaykh's and Mai Ghoussoub's writing on civil war in Lebanon Authors include Karina Eileraas Belgin

Turan zkaya Joshua Paul Dale John Potvin Mark McLelland Tina Sherwell Nasrin Rahimieh Stephen Morton Anastasia Vallasopoulos Suha Kudsieh and Kate McInturff From Outlaw to Rebel Meryem Belkaïd, 2023-01-31 This book analyzes the rise of socially and politically engaged Algerian documentaries created in the period immediately following the end of the Algerian civil war 1991 1999 It uses case studies to highlight the works of four Algerian filmmakers and devotes a chapter to each Malek Bensma l Hassen Ferhani Djamel Kerkar and Karim Sayad The book makes visible productions that have been overlooked not only in distribution circuits but also within academia and examines the political significance and the esthetic power of some of the most influential Algerian documentaries produced since the 2000s Extremities Darcy Grimaldo Grigsby, 2002-01-01 In the decades following the French Revolution four artists Girodet Gros Gericault and Delacroix painted works in their Parisian studios that vividly expressed violent events in faraway colonial lands This book examines six of these paintings and argues that their disturbing erotic depictions of slavery revolt plague decapitation cannibalism massacre and abduction chart the history of France s empire and colonial politics Darcy Grimaldo Grigsby shows that these paintings about occurrences in the West Indies Syria Egypt Senegal and Ottoman Empire Greece are preoccupied not with mastery and control but with loss degradation and failure and she explains how such representations of crises in the colonies were able to answer the artists longings as well as the needs of the government and the opposition parties at home Empire made painters devoted to the representation of liberty and the new French nation confront liberty s antithesis slavery It also forced them to contend with cultural and racial difference Young male artists responded says Grigsby by translating distant crises into images of challenges to the self making history painting the site where geographic extremities and bodily extremities articulated one another Boundaries Jenni Ramone, Gemma Twitchen, 2007 Boundaries is a collection of work offering creative and critical responses to methods of making breaking and negotiating boundaries The concern of this book is not simply to address the theme of boundaries we also hope to breach the boundaries surrounding the usual ways that such a theme would ordinarily be debated As such this collection includes papers from both arts and science disciplines including literary theatrical historical linguistic educational travel writing and geographical perspectives from academics postgraduate research students postgraduate creative writers and creative writers without institutional affiliation The book is interdisciplinary in its approach and boundary crossing in its presentation instead of organising the collection in sections of papers according to whether they are predominantly creative or critical in approach the papers are presented together and are organised in three sections according to the way that those papers approach the boundary that they perceive whether that boundary is being made negotiated or broken In addition to the main papers in the three sections the collection is framed by interviews with the plenary speakers who were invited to the conference Adam Roberts and Hanan Al Shaykh These are writers whose works repeatedly deal with boundaries of form genre and audience and the interviews included here start to explore the range of boundaries existing in their work and in their lives as writers The format of their contribution to

this book allows another boundary to be crossed by including formal structured interviews as another medium of developing the debate Taking the principle that the idea of the boundary is in fact and in imagination boundless Jenni Ramone and Gemma Twitchen gather together in Boundaries sixteen texts that stage in adventurous and provocative ways the endless reconceptualisation of this most enigmatic of concepts Boundaries is at once a startling reassessment and necessary reorientation around its subject in which critical acuity and creative panache cross and recross the borders of imaginative space To say that this is a boundary breaking collection that frontiers have been transgressed limits erased and hitherto invisible liminal territories mapped is only to draw a line underneath the limitless inventiveness of the transgressive and translative interventions of this volume The reader of Boundaries will find herself bound in a nutshell that makes her a ruler of infinite space Ramone and Twitchen are to be applauded for redrawing the map and erasing the borders between the critical the creative and the cultural with such passion and precision Julian Wolfreys author of Writing London Inventions of the City oeMake break negotiate or if you will here are three impossible things to do with conceptual boundaries and all before breakfast or at least middle age so say the exciting collective of young scholars critics and writers who come together here The result is much brilliant making breaking and negotiating of all sorts of boundaries but above all the boundary between the critical and the creative Nothing could be more timely or important John Schad Professor of Modern Literature University of Lancaster

Francophone Culture and the Postcolonial Fascination with Ethnic Crimes and Colonial Aura Michael F. O'Riley, 2005 This book demonstrates how both postcolonial France and the Maghreb cultural identity and memory are structured in large part through a dialogue with colonial history that impedes a confrontation with contemporary issues important to the present and future of those geographical territories Cultural Memory and Colonial Haunting between France and the Maghreb represents a comprehensive and cohesive collection of scholarly chapters owing to the breadth and depth of knowledge regarding not only colonial and postcolonial vestiges and on going relations between France and the Maghreb but rather all aspects of the Francophone world as well as mainstream French contemporary literary studies and theory and the New Europe Furthermore this work is an important and refreshing contribution to the field of postcolonial Francophone studies as they relate to contemporary French society and popular culture Readers will be equally impressed by the cogency and perspicacity of the author s many insightful observations and arguments which will be of great interest to both specialists of French and Francophone cultural and literary studies by a top notch researcher and communicator who knows how to adeptly get his point across both clearly and effectively The author is equally adept at drawing upon and incorporating into his research a body of critical and theoretical works to make his arguments that much more convincing and well grounded As this study shows the author has an excellent grasp of the crucial cultural historical socio political and literary themes and issues confronting both French and Francophone studies with respect to postcolonial discourse affecting cultural memories of the colonizer colonized in both space and time To the author s credit this study poses some crucial questions and offers some possible new theoretical and practical avenues to explore or investigate with regard to the dialectic of the Other such as how the colonized can come to grasp with and fully define his or her own individual identity through the distorted mirror or prism of the collective and necessarily painful colonial experience the complexities and problematics the historical and cultural underpinnings associated with the notion of occulted memories and more importantly the evolutive process or mechanism of forging identities Drawing from the work of historian Pierre Nora the author convincingly shows how France and the Maghreb are haunted by past present and future memories or complexes by colonial lieux de memoire or sites of memory which perpetuate a polemical mythical discourse and dialectic owing principally to an obsessive memorialization of colonial history Such identifications with the colonial ultimately represent an overly deterministic distorted nostalgic collective vantage point The author draws upon Michel Foucault's theory of synchronic anchoring among other theorists and writers to make a very compelling argument to account both historically and culturally for these memory and identity distortions or shifts Possibly one of the most important contributions this book makes is its lucid and illuminating discussion of the pervasive use of haunting as a theoretical metaphor Bhabha Ian Chambers Anne McClintock and Robert Young Michael O Riley points to how these theorists work can be read as a haunting identification with French colonial history This unique interpretation of Anglophone postcolonial theory provides a highly original and important contribution to Francophone postcolonial studies but it also demonstrates how theories of postcolonial intervention are frequently formulated through the idea of an affective haunting colonial aura O Riley argues that the theoretical and cultural tropes of haunting so widely employed as a lens through which postcolonial culture identifies with colonial history create an impasse of postcolonial identification Haunted by the images and memories of colonial history postcolonial culture forges of the colonial experience a mythical and unique point of identification that precludes identification with contemporary issues of a postcolonial nature such as globalization common to postcolonial theory is frequently vitiated by the haunting singular and quasi mythical place that colonial history occupies within it Michael O Riley's identification of the role that French colonial history places within these dynamics of postcolonial theory is significant and will be of great interest to scholars of the postcolonial O Riley's analyses and conclusions stress the need and urgency as suggested in the works of authors of Maghrebian descent such as Tahar Ben Jelloun Leila Sebbar Assia Djebar and Azouz Begag to surpass or transgress this overly static and confining dialectic to create what the author calls the emergence of a nuanced form of postcolonial memory which would correspondingly lead to renewed healthier or more constructive and dynamic perspectives and understandings between former colonizer and colonized examines how postcolonial figures demonstrate in different ways the obstacles and potential solutions to the imprisonment that colonial sites of memory often present to contemporary relations within and between France and the Maghreb In other words even though the author acknowledges that the road is laden with obstacles and pitfalls associated with recalling the past and looking to the future on the part of both French and

Maghrebians he makes the point that these surrogate memories are yet only beginning to be re written and their entire significance and impact to be understood and appreciated Visual Culture, Modernity, and Nation Building Matthew Robert Lungerhausen,2004 The Colonial Harem Malek Alloula,1986 Veil Fadwa El Guindi,1999-08 This book overturns Western notions of the veil as a symbol of women s oppression in Islamic societies The author reveals how the veil which has enjoyed a resurgence in popularity since the 1970s de marginalizes women in society and is an expression of liberation from colonial legacies as well as a symbol of resistance She also shows how the veil has multiple and nuanced meanings which extend far beyond the narrow view that it is merely a special form of women s clothing Kronos ,2001

Photography and the Body in Nineteenth-century France Anne E. Linton,Raisa Rexer,2021-01-01 The first Yale French Studies issue on photography examining French photography s place in art identity and society through a lens of diversity and interdisciplinary investigation In its first issue on photography this volume of Yale French Studies presents multiple avenues of interdisciplinary investigation designed to intersect and open up new areas of inquiry in the twenty first century These intersections push beyond traditional geographic and gender boundaries exploring women s photography new cultural contexts trans orientalism and minority and marginalized bodies As they do so they ask us to reconsider the way that we conceive of photography s place in the past and in our lives today Late Imperial Culture Román De la Campa,E. Ann Kaplan,Michael Sprinker,1995 A diverse range of theoretically sophisticated and historically informed contributors take as given two fundamental facts about the culture of imperialism firstly that it has a long and complex history which in the present epoch merits its being designated late and secondly that its impact on the contemporary world is far from exhausted Together they highlight the contradictions in the serried cultural practices of imperialism in its different historical periods Publisher description Disrupting Colonial Modernity Anupama Taranath,2000 Differences ,1992 The Feminism and Visual Culture Reader Amelia Jones,2010 Feminism is one of the most important perspectives from which visual culture has been theorised and historicised over the past 30 years This book brings together a wide array of writings including classic texts and polemical new pieces
